GRAVE: images plus bio picture
John Elmer Carpenter
Birth: 10 Jun 1885
Death: 11 Jul 1959 (aged 74)
Burial: Price Cemetery, Lebanon, Smith County, Kansas, USA
Memorial #: 61322653
Bio:

John Elmer Carpenter, the eldest son of Mark and Nettie Carpenter, was born in Gratiot, Lafeyette County, Wisconsin on June 10,1885 and finished his course of life Friday July 1, 1959 reaching the age of 74 years, one month and one day. In 1894 at the age of nine he moved (by covered wagon) with his parents to Lebanon, Kansas and here he spent the rest of his life.
On December 15, 1910, John was united in marriage with Ora Handley, a happy relationship that continued for 48 years. Two sons came to bless their life and home: Harold and Karold.His principal occupation as section laborer for the railroad started June 10,1921 and continued until November 16, 1950 when he became ill and was unable to return to work, thus forcing him to retire on October 17, 1951.
These thirty years of hard honest labor give some insight as to the inner man. John was courageous, faithful and humble as well as energetic in his life. The golden rule was the guide for all his relationships with his family, his friends and his acquaintances. Even in his eight years of suffering he displayed an amazing sense of humor and faithfulness in all things right and good.His great interest in life was his family and the families of his relatives and friends.
Young people were drawn to him and adults admired him. His influence on the youth came because he had so much faith and interest in them, their activities and their future.
His honest friendliness and readiness to lend a helping hand earned him an abundance of friends from all walks and age groups of the community. He was good to his neighbors and friends, a truly great father and husband and was admired and respected by all who knew him.
He was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge for over 30 years and past Noble Grand.Preceding him in death was one sister, Rosa, and three brothers, Frank, Ernest and Martin.
Left to mourn his passing, but to hold in their memories many things for all of life are his wife, Ora of Lebanon, two sons Harold of Denver, Co. and Karold of Stockton, Ca.; four sisters: Nellie Atwill of Lebanon, Myra Buller of Vancouver, Wa., Florence Eustace of Bridgeport, Ne. and Pearl Hart of Lincoln, Ne.

Jerry Carpenter Obituary
Carpenter, Jerry Arthur

DARLINGTON - Jerry Arthur Carpenter, age 83, of Darlington, Wis., passed away on Sunday, Aug. 30, 2020, at Agrace HospiceCare in Fitchburg, Wis.

Jerry was born Aug. 19, 1937, in Darlington, Wis., to Clifford and Muriel (Wendt) Carpenter. He attended VanMatre country school in Wiota and graduated from Darlington High School in 1955. Jerry married the love of his life, the former Marilyn Olson, on April 30, 1960, at East Wiota Lutheran Church in Wiota, Wis. They were blessed with three children, Deb (Kevin) Quinn, Platteville, Steve (Lisa) Carpenter, Darlington and Cathy (Dave) Calvert, Mineral Point.

Jerry began milking cows at the age of 8 and his passion for dairy farming was lifelong. After their marriage, Jerry and Marilyn farmed in the Wiota area until 1978 when they purchased a farm just outside of Darlington. Today that farm, Red Rock View Farms, is run by his son, Steve, and his family. Jerry was so very proud of the expansion and success that Steve, Lisa and family have brought to his beloved farm.

After farming and family, sports was Jerry's other passion. Participant or spectator, Jerry especially loved baseball. Summer time for the family meant traveling southwest Wisconsin where Jerry played fast pitch and was the pitcher for Lamont and Fayette slow pitch teams, playing into his 60s. While he was a huge Redbirds, Badgers and Packers fan, the Chicago Cubs were his favorite team. Never wanting to miss a game, many family outings were planned around the Cubs schedule!

Jerry also loved bowling, and bowled league at the Ranch House Lanes in Darlington for many years. His name often appeared for high average; however, high score was never more important than the time spent with his bowling buddies followed by a good game of Jass. Playing ball, bowling, or hunting up North, Jerry treasured the many friendships formed through the years.

Jerry was a member of the Darlington United Methodist Church, the Evening Star Lodge #64 in Darlington, and the Zor Shriners. He was also a crop adjustor for Rain and Hail for 25 years. He was an avid reader, particularly westerns and Louis L'Amour.

Jerry was quiet by nature, yet jovial with friends. He had a quick wit and great sense of humor. He loved to tease his grandchildren, and they will treasure the tradition of having their nose buttered on their birthday by Grandpa. Jerry's grandchildren and great-grandchildren were his pride and joy. He loved watching them play sports through the years and enjoyed time spent together.

In addition to being survived by his wife and children, he leaves behind 10 grandchildren, Chuck (Rachel) Allendorf, Chad (Sarah) Allendorf and Chelsea (David) Edwards, Cody (Carrie Jo), Colton (Danielle Ramaker), Carson (Alyvia Riley) and Cora Carpenter and Kyle, Jeremy and Katie Calvert; six great-grandchildren, Nolan, Nathan and Brooklyn Allendorf, Chloe Carpenter, Bryce Jerry Allendorf, Wrenley Carpenter and another great-grandson due in November; brother, David (Audrey) Carpenter; sisters, Marilyn Elver and Joyce (Jerry) Tvedt; brother-in-law, Carl Chandler; sister-in-law, Connie (Butch) Ferrell; and many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents; and a sister, Martha Chandler; and brother-in-law, Joe Elver.

The family would like to thank Agrace palliative care and hospice orange teams for the wonderful in-home care these past few months. We would also like to thank the wonderful staff at Memorial Hospital of Lafayette County and Dr. Solverson for the excellent care given to him over years. Thanks also to everyone at the Fitchburg Agrace HospiceCare for making his last day on earth so comforting. All of you are extraordinary people and we are so thankful and appreciate each one of you.

To protect our family and friends, a private family service will be held with burial at the Union Grove Cemetery in Darlington, Wis. The Erickson Funeral Home in Darlington is serving the family. Online condolences may be expressed to the family at www.ericksonfuneralhome.com.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be written out to "the family of Jerry Carpenter."

Martha M. “Marty” Carpenter Chandler
Birth: 26 Apr 1939 Wisconsin, USA
Death: 30 Mar 2014 (aged 74) New Glarus, Green County, Wisconsin, USA
Burial: Graceland Cemetery, Blanchardville, Lafayette County, Wisconsin, USA
Bio:
If Martha "Marty" Chandler's life were a book, her last chapter was written on March 30, 2014, after a long battle with cancer. Her first chapter began in Wiota when her parents, Clifford and Muriel (Wendt) Carpenter, welcomed her on April 26, 1939. She attended Van Matre School in Wiota, graduated from Darlington High School in 1957 and later UW Whitewater with a degree in education. Her first year of teaching was in Beloit and after marrying Carl Chandler on June 22, 1963. Marty taught various grades and subject areas in Blanchardville from Phy. Ed. to English. The next chapters included a variety of jobs in Blanchardville where she helped run the family insurance business, was a municipal judge, and sold real estate for many years. Other chapters would have been about her memberships in several community organizations in town such as The United Methodist Church, Jaycettes, Blanchardville Community Pride, Village Board, Historical Society, and Women's Club. Another chapter would describe her years with the Lafayette County Improvement/Development and the Wis. State Board of Realtors. One of the bigger chapters would be filled with hobbies and interests. Marty loved to hit garage sales, shop with coupons, travel, watch movies, read books, plan outings with the Red Hat Hatters along with her many treasured friends, and was a sports lover particularly the Packers, Badgers, Dallas Cowboys, and #1 Pecatonica Vikings fan.

Most likely the longest chapter would be much like Marty--devoted her family. She is survived by her husband Carl; two children, Chuck (Jodi) Chandler of Blanchardville and Cheralee "Cher" (Larry) Schliem of Blanchardville; five grandchildren Cayla (Nick) Allen, Kimberlee Chandler, Brooks Chandler, Jennah Schliem, and Drew Schliem; and one very special great granddaughter, Avery Allen; two sisters, Marilyn Elver and Joyce (Jerry) Tvedt, and two brothers, Jerry (Marilyn) Carpenter and David (Audrey) Carpenter; many nieces, nephews, and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents and brother-in-law Joe Elver. In her final chapter, Marty will no doubt have the best seat in the house, never missing another game.

A celebration of Marty's life will be held on Wednesday, April 16th from 5-8 pm at the Blanchardville American Legion Hall. In lieu of flowers, donations made to the Marty Chandler Scholarship Fund would be appreciated. The Saether Funeral Home of Blanchardville is assisting the family.

... Attached is a photo of John T. and Vinnie in Montana in 1930, taken by Nellie (Tyer) Carpenter. My mother's side of the family comes from a long line of Mormons, so plenty of info there with huge family books.

Carpenter line has always been sketchy. Thank you for everything you sent and the links. Lots to review and ponder.

"Mad Major" Carpenter Attached 6 Bazookas To His Artillery Spotter Plane And Went Tank Hunting
Aug 29, 2015 Jack Knight
Charles Carpenter enlisted in the US Army in 1942 commissioned a second lieutenant. After completing flight training, Carpenter flew light observation aircraft and accumulated substantial flight training for enemy surveillance and observation and artillery scouting missions.
In 1944, Carpenter was promoted and assigned to combat duty with the 1st Bombardment Division in France. When he arrived, he was assigned to fly artillery support and surveillance missions with a Piper Cub light aircraft – an L-4H.
This assignment was supporting part of General George S. Patton's U.S. Third Army. The Piper L-4H had a combined weight capacity of approximately 232 pounds, including cargo and passenger.
Of note, it should also be mentioned that there was no radio aboard.
By the time of the Allied siege of Lorient and the encirclement of German forces around that city, Carpenter had become annoyed at not being able to attack Nazi forces during the occasions when Allied artillery was out of reach or assault aircraft were occupied in other combat missions.
Carpenter had noticed that other pilots had installed bazookas as armament on their planes as anti-tank fire. So with approval from Command Headquarters, Carpenter first attached two bazookas to the wings of his plane, which he called Rosie the Rocketer.

After some testing, Carpenter added two more rocket launchers, then later, two more for a total of six bazookas.
Carpenter's bazookas each fired a single rocket-propelled anti-tank grenade with a battery ignited toggle switch operated by the pilot. The bazooka's warhead could pierce approximately three inches (76 mm) of armor on impact when fired at a 30° flight angle, even though the rocket was highly ineffectual against the front armor of the German Tiger tanks.
Now with his aircraft armed, Carpenter began attacking German armored forces. With any firm hit against the thinner armor protecting the top of the tank, Carpenter found that even against the heavy tanks such as the Tiger I, using the bazookas as airborne weapons were quite effective at immobilizing the Nazi tank targets.
Most of Major Carpenter missions were flown alone because any additional weight had a negative impact on the plane's maneuverability and speed.
When on the attack, Carpenter's usual routine was to find his target while he was in the air, then corkscrew down before rapidly diving at the enemy tank or other target and releasing his bazooka grenades.
It wasn't essential the enemy target be destroyed; as long as a tank was stopped from advancing any further.
Within a short time, Carpenter was credited with immobilizing four Nazi tanks, two of which were Tiger 1 tanks, and knocking out a German armored car. Carpenter quickly became known as known as "The Mad Major" or "Bazooka Charlie" by his comrades in his unit.
His Carpenter's heroic acts were soon recognized by several media accounts, including the Associated Press, the New York Sun, the Stars and Stripes, Liberty Magazine, and Popular Science.
Major Carpenter was the private pilot for General John S. Wood, the commanding officer of the 4th Armored Division, in addition to flying his other surveillance and attack missions.
His duties as a personal pilot, allowed Carpenter to avoid most artillery observation missions. This was very fortunate for him because it allowed him the time to bestow his own private war on the Nazi armored corps.
Carpenter was also involved in some ground warfare. On one occasion, Carpenter was inspecting some prospective landing fields in a jeep near Avranches, when German infantrymen attacked his location. Jumping atop a Sherman tank, Carpenter started firing a .50-caliber machine gun, while shouting for the other troops to attack the Nazis.
Directed by the machine gun fire and the tank guns from the US Sherman tank, the Americans forced the Germans to retreat. Eventually, Carpenter's Sherman came upon some Allied forces and accidentally shot at a Sherman bulldozer tank, blowing off the blade.
Carpenter was placed under arrest for the friendly fire incident and threatened with death by a firing squad until his commanding officer, General Wood, came to his support.
He was told he would be court-martialed for his actions. Suddenly, this decision was overturned by General Patton himself. Patton not only stopped the trial proceedings but awarded the major the Silver Star for bravery!
Patton said, that Carpenter was the type of American fighter he wanted in his army!
Initially, during Carpenter's missions, he faced very little return ground fire. The Nazis were hesitant to fire on the light aircraft because they didn't want to reveal their position, as doing so would draw fire from the Allied artillery or, worse, bring in the Allied fighter/bomber support.
However, as Carpenter's bazooka attacks became more frequent and damaging, the Nazi return ground fire increased. Even the German infantry troops would fire at Carpenter with rifles and pistols trying to down "The Mad Major".
On one occasion, Carpenter told a reporter from the Stars and Stripes that the enemy troops must have gotten the word to fire whatever they have at light aircraft with bazookas mounted on them.
Now, every time I'm on a mission they shoot whenever they see me. They never used to bother with me. The bazookas must be making them mad.
September 20, 1944, during the Battle of Arracourt near Nancy, France, was one of Carpenter's longest missions. It began when the Nazi armored division forces launched a sudden tank attack pinning down several 4th Armored Division support units.
Major Carpenter boarded his armed L-4 and soared into the sky, but he couldn't see the ground below because of heavy fog. He was beginning to worry; he couldn't locate the enemy.
Around noon, the fog began to clear, and Carpenter spotted a company of Nazi Panther tanks and armored cars pressing forward to Arracourt.
Diving through a barrage of German infantry fire during a continual sequence of assaults against the Nazi formation, Carpenter emptied all of his bazooka tubes. Carpenter returned to reload and flew two more missions that afternoon.
During this long mission, he fired at least sixteen bazooka rockets at the oncoming enemy. "Bazooka Charlie" was given credit for immobilizing two Panther tanks and several armored vehicles, while killing or wounding a dozen or more enemy troops.
The remainder of the German tank formation had to retreat because of Carpenter's unnerving assaults to the enemy. These heroic attacks enabled a pinned down 4th Armored Division support crew, who had witnessed what Major Carpenter did that day, to escape capture and possibly death.

By the end of the war, Major Carpenter had destroyed several German armored cars and immobilized at least 14 Nazi tanks (he would be credited officially with two Tiger I tanks completely destroyed from a total six tanks destroyed) and had also participated in several ground combat actions.
Carpenter gained another nickname – because he never got as much as a scratch from enemy fire, he was also called, "The Lucky Major."
In recognition of his bravery and 'call to duty', Carpenter was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel and awarded the Bronze Star, the Air Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, and the Silver Star with Oak Leaf Cluster.

Bazooka Charlie and the Grasshopper: A Tale of World War II
The most famous small airplane of the war is about to fly again.
By Jim Busha
AIR & SPACE MAGAZINE
APRIL 2020
Joe Scheil is a numbers guy. When he sees an interesting airplane, he looks for its serial number in an online database or published reference work to learn what he can about it. He adds the information he finds to one of several Excel spreadsheets he has created with details on hundreds of airplanes organized by their serial numbers. In 2017, while reading an article in the Experimental Aircraft Association's magazine Warbirds of America, Scheil came across a photo of a famous World War II Piper L-4 Grasshopper, serial number 43-30426, and decided to find out more.
The article was about Charles Carpenter, an L-4 pilot who became known as "Bazooka Charlie" for his exploits against German tanks. The Grasshopper—a Piper Cub as a civilian—was flown during the war as a liaison and observation airplane, but Carpenter, war-weary and homesick, became dissatisfied with flying as an artillery spotter, scouting ahead of the advancing 4th Armored Division of General George Patton's 3rd Army. Instead, he bolted six M1A1 bazookas on the wing struts of his Piper and rained fire on Panzer columns. "It was like a sparrow trying to attack an elephant," says his daughter, Carol Apacki, who had written the article Joe Scheil read, "except this sparrow had fangs."
Carpenter wasn't the first pilot to hang weapons on an L-bird—as liaison airplanes like the Aeronca L-3, Stinson L-5 Sentinel, and the L-4 are known—but he was almost certainly the most effective at using them. In October 1944 alone, he destroyed four tanks and an armored truck. On the side of his airplane, he painted "Rosie the Rocketer," a tribute, Apacki says, to the women working in aircraft factories back home, who were nicknamed Rosie the Riveter.
Besides picking out the Piper's registration number, Scheil—an airline pilot and Cub owner who reads a lot of military aviation history—saw something else in the photograph of Carpenter and his airplane: a reminder of another photo, often included in histories of World War I. "It's the picture of Frank Luke in front of his SPAD, the day before he died," says Scheil. Luke, the first pilot to receive the Medal of Honor and at the time of his death the country's leading ace, was, like Carpenter, unconventional and aggressive in combat. Scheil says Luke and Carpenter had the same casual pose and the same sad look. By the time Carpenter's photo was taken, "all the ineptitude, naiveté, and bewilderment of the Americans as we were getting ourselves killed in North Africa" was gone, Scheil says. What he saw in Carpenter was the grind of the war after Normandy and the grief borne by airmen who had witnessed its horrors.
Charles Carpenter and his small airplane were also similar in some ways. Innocent in its early days, the Piper Cub was painted sunny yellow with a black lightning bolt running the 22-foot length of its fuselage. Nothing beats a Cub on a warm summer afternoon with the side door open: Pilot and passenger can watch the world float slowly by.
With a gross weight of 1,220 pounds, a cruising speed around 80 mph, and Model T simplicity, the Cub gently introduced thousands of pilots to flight from the late 1930s to 1944 through the U.S. Civilian Pilot Training Program.
Carpenter could also be considered a trainer. Before America's entry into World War II, he taught history in a Moline, Illinois high school. "In the summers, he ran a boys' camp in the Ozarks," his daughter writes in Warbirds, "a camp that focused on teaching outdoor skills and building character."
When the war began, the Cub traded its yellow paint for olive drab, and Carpenter enlisted in the U.S. Army, commissioned as a second lieutenant. Flying at an altitude of 1,500 feet, the L-4 Grasshoppers could speed the advance of tank columns by reporting the positions of the enemy. Initially German soldiers feared giving away their positions by firing on L-birds, but the calculus quickly changed. In June and July 1944, General Omar Bradley's 1st Army lost 49 artillery spotting aircraft and 33 pilots. Flying at low altitude made the pilots vulnerable even to light anti-aircraft fire. Once Carpenter started firing bazookas, the Germans saw him—and every other Grasshopper—as a threat. "Every time I show up now, they shoot with everything they have," he told a Stars and Stripes reporter.

Watching mayhem from his 1,500-foot perch and barely escaping gunfire eventually took a toll on Carpenter. In a poem he wrote after the war, "Incident in the Woods," he tries to capture the impact of combat on vanquished and victor alike. He describes coming upon an enemy officer tending to a soldier who had been shot: "The soldier dead, the man had returned/ To save some seeming trifle./ It was a baby thing, blue, and partly burned./ He folded it and kicked his loaded rifle./ I led him from that torn and stinking spot;/ May fire and grassy time soften memory./ Willing guards took him at the prison lot,/ And smiled, and wrongly guessed me free."
In early 1945, Carpenter was diagnosed with Hodgkin's disease (a type of cancer), given a prognosis of no more than two years, and sent home. (Instead, he lived another 21 years.) His airplane was assigned to another pilot. When the hostilities ceased in Europe, Piper L-4 aircraft, which had cost the government only $2,500 each, weren't worth shipping home; they were either scrapped or sold as surplus. The Piper L-4 flown by Carpenter met one of those two fates. Until Scheil decided to look into it, no one cared which one.
Within hours of reading Apacki's article about her dad, Scheil found that the L-4H, serial number 43-30426, had been left in a German surplus yard in September 1946. He first searched a list of military aircraft serial numbers on joebaugher.com, a website familiar to most warbird fans and packed with information about U.S. military airplanes. And there it was: On the site, the military serial number is linked with the manufacturer's serial number 11717. With that manufacturer's number, Joe Baugher's source—he also lists on his website the people who email him information—found that after the war, the airplane was registered in Switzerland as HB-OBK and in April 1956, re-registered in Austria as OE-AAB. With further research, Scheil learned that Heinz Wullschleger of Olten was the first to register the Cub and that when the registration changed in 1956, the aircraft, sporting yellow Cub colors, became part of the Austrian Aero Club in Vienna, where it towed gliders. For a number of years, the little Piper flew as a civilian until, as the second aircraft ever registered in Austria (signified by the designation AAB; AAA being the first), it was acquired by the Österreichisches Luftfahrtmuseum at Graz Airport. That's where it was in 2017, when Scheil tracked it down. Bingo. Scheil called Rob Collings.
One of the foremost warbird collectors in the United States, Collings is the chief executive officer of the nonprofit Collings Foundation, which has supported the restoration and display of two dozen historic warbirds, including a Curtiss P-40 that had been in a hangar at Pearl Harbor on the day of the Japanese attacks and a Supermarine Spitfire that had flown 116 combat missions. The foundation also supports the Wings of Freedom tour, which sells rides aboard the P-40, a P-51, and several large bombers.
Scheil, one of the pilots who had flown the B-17 and a B-24 on the Wings of Freedom Tour, knew that Collings was looking for a combat aircraft that had seen action during the war.
"There are none that are obtainable," Scheil says. "There's no P-47 from the Eighth [Air Force] or the Ninth. We were looking for something that could capture the fight from Normandy to Germany—for an aircraft that was doing air-to-ground work." Surviving P-51 Mustangs had all been spoken for, Scheil says. "So when this Cub showed up with an unknown number of tanks and armored cars killed, it was oddly enough the most destructive aircraft that we had extant from the ground war across Europe."
Scheil says Carpenter and his Grasshopper are credited with stopping a German counterattack in one battle. "That was a very significant accolade paid in 4th Armored Division records to a liaison aircraft," he says.
Rob Collings traveled to Graz, Austria to examine the Piper Cub then registered as OE-AAB.
"When I first saw the L-4 in person it had recently been recovered and was being restored as a static display," says Collings. "We didn't know too much about it because it had fresh fabric on it, and they weren't keen to let us start cutting into it." The museum was unaware of the airplane's service in World War II, but Collings could see the serial number on the data plate. Not until the airplane was returned to the United States and stripped to the bare frame, however, could he confirm the parts numbers against Piper records.
In 2004, Colin Powers, the restoration manager for the Evergreen Aviation and Space Museum in McMinnville, Oregon, won a trophy for the restoration of a Piper Cub that had served in the Pacific. "I bought it in pieces," says Powers, "and I thought it would be a fun project to do." The trophy was awarded by the National Aviation Heritage Invitational, which for many years has invited vintage airplane owners to display their airplanes at the national air races in Reno, Nevada, where they're judged for the authenticity of the restoration. (Powers is now a Heritage judge.) More than 200,000 people attend the races and stroll among the classics in the Heritage competition, and one morning during race week, Powers saw on his L-4 a business card that had been tucked in its door. It was from the Reno fire marshal with a note saying that he was the nephew of famous L-4 pilot Charles Carpenter. From him, Powers learned that Carpenter's daughter lived in Ohio. When the Heritage Invitational went to the Dayton Air Show the following year, Powers invited Carol Apacki to visit the airplane. She had never seen a Piper L-4. "I had her get in it and she became very emotional," says Powers. "She didn't really realize how vulnerable her father was while he was flying. We became friends after that."
Later, Powers re-restored the airplane and won a trophy from the EAA for Reserve Grand Champion Warbird. After Collings finalized negotiations with the Austrian museum, he chose Powers to restore the L-4 because of his experience (Powers restored two more L-4s after his first one) and because Powers had such a strong connection with Carpenter's daughter. Rosie the Rocketer was packed into a cargo container in Austria, trucked to Spain, and loaded on a cargo ship to New Jersey. The airplane traveled by train across the United States and arrived in Powers' Portland shop in January 2019.

"Once we got it back to Oregon and had the fabric stripped off, we were just blown away," says Collings. "We didn't want to make everything perfectly new because what was underneath was in great condition. The original wooden spars still had great varnish on them. The ribs were bare aluminum but they were all clean. The grease pencil handwriting was there from the factory, with names and dates. These are things that you could never duplicate."
With three L-4 restorations under his belt, Powers wasn't expecting any surprises from Rosie the Rocketer, but he got a few. "Bullet holes," he says. "One bullet had passed from the bottom through the leading edge of the aileron into the wing, went through the steel-plate hinge for the aileron, tore a big chunk of metal out of one of the ribs and exited out through the top of the wing. I've retained all of that [damage]; except on top of the wing, I'll just put a patch where it exited."
Powers also located a double patch on the front strut where the Army had patched both sides after a bullet had apparently entered on one side and exited on the other. Collings is intent on bringing the L-bird back to look exactly like it did in 1944. To do that, Powers has a long list of tasks.
"The airplane was modified," he says. "The cowling and boot cowl and a lot of the instrument panel are all different and need to be replaced. They replaced the engine with a Continental C90." As a glider tug, he says, it would have needed the increased power. "We have a period-correct, 65-horsepower Continental to install."
They also replaced three of the instruments with German instruments. "Rob's got a copy of the Piper build sheet," says Powers, so he can determine what instruments were in it in 1944. "Keystone Instruments in Pennsylvania is refurbishing all the original instruments for us," he says.
Finding six original M1A1 bazookas will be daunting. Powers is using photographs unearthed by Carol Apacki to guide him in mounting the bazookas. He knows they were mounted on a piece of plywood on the struts, but figuring out the proper angles is going to be trial and error.
"It gives me a lot of pride that I was asked to restore Rosie," he continues, and says he hopes to fly it when it's finished.
In an August 1944 letter home, Charles Carpenter wrote, "Lately I have been taking quite a few chances but my luck has been marvelous. Yesterday I got a bullet hole through the wing and hit a church steeple with one wheel. It was very little for what might have happened under the circumstances."
More than 75 years later, Bazooka Charlie's Grasshopper will fly again, to Oshkosh for the annual EAA fly-in and warbird judging. It is one of the last World War II veterans to return home, bullet holes and all.

Early life and career
Carpenter was born and raised in the town of Edgington, Illinois. He graduated from Centre College in Danville, Kentucky.[2]

World War II service
Upon arriving in France in 1944, Carpenter was assigned an L-4 for artillery support and reconnaissance missions. With a 150-pound pilot and no radio aboard, the L-4H had a combined cargo and passenger weight capacity of approximately 232 pounds.[3][4]
Inspired by other L-4 pilots who had installed bazookas as anti-tank armament on their planes, Carpenter added bazooka launchers to his plane as well.[4][5][6]
Within a few weeks, on September 20, 1944, during the Battle of Arracourt, Carpenter was credited with knocking out a German armored car and four tanks.[6] Carpenter's plane, bearing USAAF s/n 43-30426, was known as Rosie the Rocketer (a play on Rosie the Riveter), and his exploits were soon featured in numerous press accounts, including Stars and Stripes, the Associated Press, Popular Science, the New York Sun, and Liberty magazine. Carpenter once told a reporter that his idea of fighting a war was to "attack, attack and then attack again."[7]
After destroying his fifth enemy tank, Carpenter told a Stars and Stripes correspondent that the "word must be getting around to watch out for Cubs with bazookas on them. Every time I show up now they shoot with everything they have. They never used to bother Cubs. Bazookas must be bothering them a bit."[8][9]
By war's end, Major Carpenter had destroyed or immobilized several German armored cars and tanks (he would be officially credited with six tanks destroyed).[6]

Postwar service
In 1945, Carpenter became seriously ill, and was honorably discharged from U.S. Army service in 1946. He returned to work as a history teacher at Urbana High School in Urbana, Illinois, where he worked until his death in 1966 at the age of 53.[10]
Rosie the Rocketer
In October 2017, the same L-4H that then-Major Carpenter had flown in World War II was located at the Österreichisches Luftfahrtmuseum aviation museum at Graz Airport, and was acquired by the Collings Foundation for restoration to its WW II appearance by a restorer in La Pine, Oregon.[11]

In 1944, U.S. Army pilot and artillery spotter [Major] Charles Carpenter was in France, fighting in the 4th Armored Division of Gen. George S. Patton's 3rd Army, when he had a crazy idea...Carpenter strapped three bazookas under each wing of his 1944 Piper L-4H, a frail reconnaissance plane not typically used for combat, flew over the German army and blasted multiple Panzer tanks and armored cars north of the town of Nancy. It earned him the nickname "Bazooka Charlie."...75 years later, the Piper L-4H — nicknamed "Rosie the Rocketer" — has found its way to a rural garage near La Pine, where it's being restored by a retired engineer.

Subject: Re: Carpenter family history
Hi John
Thanks for responding and I looked over the draft you sent me of descendants of Fannie Weeks. The tree that is described in your draft published in 1884 is the one that my family has. If for any reason, any Carpenters are interested in looking at it - please forward my email address to them and I can send them a picture - in case there is no picture of it in the Carpenter Family in America by Daniel H. Carpenter, 1901. Is there any way to purchase that book? I would like to get a copy. Since William was related to two different lines - did he also do a tree such as the one I have for the other side?
Also wanted to let you know that Louise was adopted. I think Louise was a niece of Fannie's from the research that I have done. Her brother had passed only a few years after Louise was born and it looks like the widow had many children and mouths to support. So I believe Fannie and William took Louise in as they did not have any children of their own. My own assumptions, of course. Louise (Carpenter) Weeks Flewwellin did have three children - Laura Flewwellin as you have noted but also William Francis Flewwellin (my great grandfather) and a Leroy Flewwellin. William Francis Flewwellin was the only one to have issue - Evelyn Cornelia Flewwellin. He married Louise Brown Moseman of Wappingers Falls. They resided in Yorktown Heights, NY. Evelyn went on to marry Earl William Brown and had two sons - William Earl Brown (my father) and Gerald Brown. Most are buried in Amawalk Hill Cemetery. Just thought I would let you know in case you needed it for whatever reason.
If you have any different information about the above besides the draft - please let me know.
Merry Christmas!
Jennifer Brown Anderson

Subject: [CARPENTER]
Mary Carpenter wife of Daniel; died August 20, 1859, 71st year, at Rochester
In the New York Herald it was reported on Wednesday, August 31, 1859, that Mary Carpenter died "at Rochester, on Saturday, August 20" "wife of Daniel Carpenter, in the 71st year of her age."
Daniel Carpenter of PortChester (Rye township), Westchester County, NY wrote his will on the 5th day of July 1859. In it he refers to his wife Mary and states what should occur if she "survives me." Daniel Carpenter died "at PortChester, NY, on Friday, June 15" 1860, "in the 83d year of his age." This is reported in the New York Herald issue of June 16, 1860.
Daniel's will was probated in WestChester and there is no mention of Mary Carpenter in any of the papers. She must have died between the writing of he will and the recording of the will.
Does anyone know of a specific relationship between the Mary Carpenter who died in Rochester and this family of PortChester, NY? I believe that she is the wife of Daniel Carpenter of PortChester. Two of their surviving children at the time of Daniel's death are living in Brooklyn, NY. There is a son William Carpenter who is not found at that time.

Last names used as middle names in the next generation that are unaccounted for as yet are Byron and Greeley. Perhaps one of these was Mary's maiden name.
Thanks for any leads.
Marianne

I am searching for information about Ezra CARPENTER (b. ca 1799 in Madison Co., NY) and Minerva NICHOLS (b. ca 1803 in Oneida Co., NY). They came to Chautauqua Co. as early as 1826 when their first child Maryett was born. Other children (taken from census records) were: Biliny, b. 1833; Emily b. 1833 (in Cattaraugus Co.); Catherine b. 1835 (in Cattaraugus Co.) m. Elijah DELAND; Jane b. 1837 (in Chautauqua Co.) m. Rowland GARDNER; and Reynolds b. 1839 (in Chautauqua Co.). The family lived in Sheridan for at least 10 years (1845-1855) and lived in Pomfret in 1860.
I am a descendant of Catherine Carpenter Deland. Her daughter Estelle DeLand married Joseph KNAPP and moved to McHenry Co., Illinois. I am particularly interested in determining the parents of Ezra Carpenter and Minerva Nichols. I would enjoy communicating with anyone researching these lines.

He published in 1884 a family tree on his Carpenter branch: "Abraham, Jacob and Gilbert sons of John the Hatter." This "tree" was used in the Carpenter Family book of 1901.
It is a beautiful work of art. See Misc Pics.

UPDATE: Oct 2021
I have been in communications with Jenn Anderson and she graciously gave her permission to share more information on the Providence Carpenter line "Tree" image sent to me in 2011 from her. This hand drawn tree is an amazing work of love and was very neatly done. Jenn reported it was about 4 by 3 feet in size.

John R. Carpenter
La Mesa, CA USA

Jenn reports the following (slight cleanup made for clarity) compiled from several emails.

We all got a copy from my grandmother usually when we got married. It is in my hallway in CT right now. My family members in NY have the other copies as does my mom and sister in FL.

My aunt and uncle probably has the original from which the professional copies have been made.

William Carpenter-46046 and Fanny Weeks-46049 Carpenter were Louise Weeks-46060 adopted parents. I believe Fanny was her aunt. Louise married Howard Flewwellin-46061.

At the bottom it says records obtained by William Carpenter of Amawalk, NY and I believe that is the same William Carpenter married to Fanny Weeks. And you know the history of how my family is related to him.

Fanny was my gr-gr-gr aunt. William and Fanny adopted niece of her brother, Louise Weeks Flewwellin - my gr-gr grandmother.

The picture attached is the addition of Louise to the tree on the bottom left. So that's how it was handed down. My grandmother, Evelyn Cornelia Flewwellin-135366, was very proud of this tree. It really is a beautiful tree...the calligraphy looks like a work of art.

Thanks for sharing this work,

Jenn Anderson

Fannie Weeks

Services were held at the Amawalk meeting house on Sunday, 29 July 1900.

I find the following information in a family Bible. Can any of you help with this information?
I believe the following people are the family of my Great Grandmother but the dates do not match. My Great Grandmother was Maggie Kate Carpenter. She was born April 12, 1877. Whoever wrote the date wrote 1876 first then wrote a 7 over the 6. This information is on the some paper as the following information.
Births
Merritt C. Carpenter April 11, 1838
Harriet Cole August 10,1842
John L. Carpenter July 26, 1863
Chatty E. Carpenter December 27, 1866
Mary Emma Carpenter March 6, 1870
Eddie Carpenter April 6, 1873
Deaths
Mary Emma Carpenter December 19, 1872
Edgar P. Carpenter February 23, 1874
Merrit C. Carpenter August 31, 1876
Harriet Carpenter April 28,1879
Marriages
Merritt Carpenter married Harriet Cole on October 15, 1862 in Minisink, Jefferson Township, Morris County, New Jersey. They were married by Rev. Stephen Case.
Thanks, Daniel Riker.

Children of Merritt Carpenter and Harriet Cole:

Mary Emma Carpenter, born March 6, 1870, died December 19, 1872

Carpenter Family - WILLIAM G. CARPENTER Biography

William G. Carpenter, deceased, who, throughout his residence of half a century in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, was recognized as an industrious and honorable citizen, a man whose character was above reproach, and whose success was attained by a conscientious performance of duty, was born in Dutchess county, New York, a son of John and Amy (Green) Carpenter, who were also natives of Dutchess county and members of Friends Meeting, Hicksite (Quakers). John and Amy (Green) Carpenter were the parents of five children: Leonard, Caleb, Jacob G., William G., and John G. Carpenter.

William G. Carpenter was reared on a farm in his native county, residing there until fourteen years of age, when he came to New York City and for a number of years served as clerk in the dry goods store of Jager & Skidmore. Later he and his brother, Leonard Carpenter, took a three-mile section of canal and contracted to build it, i. e., the Delaware and Hudson Canal, and he and two others named the city of Port Jarvis, New York, for John Jarvis, who served as engineer of the work. About 1832 he located in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, built up a large dry goods business, but, the work proving too, confining, he disposed of the same after a period of three years to Jacob Heivly. He then turned his attention to the purchase of land in various places both for himself and others, the greater portion of it being in the vicinity of Ralston and Roaring Branch, Pennsylvania. He then advocated the building of a railroad from Elmira, New York, to Williamsport, Pennsylvania, and as a result of his efforts and the use of his capital, the United States government sent a corps of engineers to make an experimental survey. Mr. Carpenter visited the cities along the proposed line, and secured the promise of the citizens to furnish the money, but they failed to do so, and he was obliged to contribute the capital himself, but the result was that he became broken down in health and capital also. He labored exceedingly hard to get this road through, secured the influence of the prominent men of the state, and by his thorough business methods and intelligence accomplished much, but, failing in achieving the object of his life, he returned to his old business of buying and selling land for himself and others. He was called the father of the Elmira and Williamsport Railroad.

Mr. Carpenter purchased coal lands for McIntyre and Robertson, the former of Albany, New York, and the latter of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the lands being located in Lycoming county, near Ralston, and subsequently these were known as the McIntyre Mines. He also had extensive holdings of his own in the same section. He engaged in the manufacture of lumber, owning and operating a sawmill at a place called Carpenter, which was named in honor of him, and this business he continued up to the time of his decease. He was a Whig and Republican in his political affiliations, but never sought or held public office. He was a great admirer of Horace Greeley, whose paper, the " New York Tribune," he read for many years; " it was his Bible." He was an incessant reader and possessed the faculty of remembering everything he read, being almost able to repeat in verbatim. He acquired this power early in life by carefully studying and reading everything that came within his reach. His friends were his books, and geology was his most interesting study, and when walking in the fields with his wife would pick up a stone and explain its formation, etc., which proved both a pleasant and instructive way of passing the time. His influential friends in New York City gave him " carte-blanche " to the leading library in that city, which was a source of gratification to him. Religiously he followed in the footsteps of his parents, believing in the doctrines of the Friends' faith. He was a broad-minded, well-balanced man and liberal in his views. He was a great admirer of Thomas Payne. Nature was his Bible, nature his religion.

Mr Carpenter married, June 21, 1844, Miss Pamelia Alden, who was born at Cold Springs-on-the-Hudson, a daughter of Manoah and Sarah (Nead) Alden, the former having been born in Great Barrington, Massachusetts, a son of Noah Alden, who was a farmer by occupation, settled at Monroeton, Pennsylvania, but later removed to Steuben county, New York, where he died, and the latter was a native of Litchfield, Connecticut, a daughter of John Nead, an iron founder. Manoah Alden learned the blacksmith trade at West Point, New York, where he met and married Sarah Nead. Later they resided for some time at Cold Spring, from, whence they removed to New York City, where he met a friend who induced him to come to Northumberland county, Pennsylvania, where he followed his trade in a foundry for three years, and then located in Williamsport, Lycoming county, where he followed his trade. Here his daughter, Pamelia Alden, met William G. Carpenter, and they were united in marriage in Ralston, where she has since made her home, and where she is highly honored, being a lady of rare intellectual attainments and liberal in her views of men and affairs. Three children were the issue of this marriage: Emery, who resides in Oakland, California; Archibald, who resides at Salida, Colorado, at the foot of Marshall Pass, engaged in the real estate business; and Alice C., wife of Dr. James Bullock, a medical practitioner, and they reside at Lonaconing, Maryland. William G. Carpenter, after a long and useful life, died February, 1882.

LAID TO REST TUESDAY

Over Forty Years
After an illness of several months the last three weeks of which he was confined to his bed. Dr. James O. Bullock, highly respected Princeville resident, passed quietly away at the home of his son, Julius, last Saturday morning, 18, at about 6 o'clock, at the ripe old age of 87 years, 11 months and 26 days. Death was due to the infirmities of old age.
Dr. James O. Bullock son of James and Harriet [Robinson] Bullock was born January 22, 1842 in Bradford county, Pennsylvania. He was the youngest and only survivor of a family of four children. His mother died when he was only seven days old. A Mrs. Jackson took him and cared for him as a mother.
After receiving his early education, Dr. Bullock took up the study of medicine, graduating from Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island.
He was married to Alice M. Carpenter on October 17, 1875 at Ralston, Pennsylvania. To this union where born, Robin, Alden and Julius Carpenter.
Dr. Bullock practiced medicine in Lonaconing, Maryland, for about 40 years. Mrs. Bullock passed away on December 15, 1915 and her remains were brought to the Blue Ridge cemetery and interred there.
In 1925, Dr. Bullock came to Princeville and has since made his home with his son Julius and wife. During the nine years of his residence here, he journeyed back east several times to visit his other son Robin and family.
Dr. Bullock made friends wherever he went was especially interested in children and the Boy Scout movement. Had he lived four days longer he would have reached his 88th birthday.
Surviving him are his two sons, Robin Alden of Park Ridge, New Jersey and Julius Carpenter of Princeville, their wives and one granddaughter, Ruth.
Funeral services for Dr. Bullock were held at the Bullock funeral home Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, with Rev. A. B. Ryan, pastor of the local Presbyterian church in charge. Burial was in the Blue Ridge cemetery, beside his beloved wife.
During Dr. Bullock's residence in Princeville he made a number of friends, who, with the sons and their families mourn his passing. He was a man of sterling character, of high intelligence and his kindly manner and ready smile made him the friend of all who knew him.

Jacob Carpenter
Birth: Mar 1842
Death: Dec 1920 (aged 78)
Burial: Edgington Cemetery, Edgington, Rock Island County, Illinois, USA
Bio:
Jacob A. Carpenter, general farmer and stock-raiser, residing on section 30, Edgington Township, is a native of Pennsylvania, having been born in Lycoming County, that State, March 17, 1842. His father, Caleb Carpenter, was a native of Dutchess Co., N.Y., and was a farmer. He was a descendant of one of the old families that had settled in New England in the 17th century. He came to Pennsylvania and settled in Lycoming County, where he was united in marriage with Hester M. Bastian, a native of that county.

Mr. Carpenter, subject of this notice, was the eldest but one in order of birth of a family of nine children. He was but ten years old when his father's family came West and settled in Edgington Township, and at that time the settlement there was new and undeveloped. The mother of Jacob Carpenter is yet living on the old homestead, with her younger son, Henry, and has attained the venerable age of 74 years. The father died on the homestead Oct. 24, 1866. Jacob A. Carpenter was educated in the public school of the county, residing under the parental roof-tree until 1862. Aug. n, of that year, he enlisted in Co. B, 126th III. Vol. Inf., Capt. Henry D. Cline (at present a resident of Rock Island). He participated in but few active engagements, the most important being that of the capture of Little Rock, Ark. ; and he was honorably discharged at Springfield, this State, Aug. 1, 1865.

He at once returned to this county, and Feb. 22, 1870, was united in marriage, at Keithsburg, Mercer Co., 111., to Miss Letitia, daughter of James and Ellen (Ewing) Venable, natives of Tyrone Co., Ireland, Mrs. Carpenter was born in the last named county, Dec. 2, 1851. Her father died before her birth, and she was raised by her mother and came to America with her, when she was about six years of age, locating soon afterwards in Mercer County. In the spring of 1866 they moved to Edgington, and Mrs. Carpenter's mother died at that place, in June, 1869.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are the parents of four children, one of whom died in infancy. The surviving are: Paul L., born Oct. 28, 1870; Eugenia, born April 14, 1876; and Nellie C, Oct. 13, 1880. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter lived in Edgington village about eight years. In 1878 Mr. Carpenter purchased 80 acres of land located on section 30, Edgington Township, on which he at once located and entered vigorously and energetically upon the task of its improvement. By economy and energetic effort, combined with the active assistance of his good helpmeet, he has subsequently added to his original purchase until he is at present the proprietor of 200 acres of land, the major portion of which is under an advanced state of cultivation.

Politically, Mr. Carpenter is a believer in and supporter of the principles of the Republican party, and and is at present Road Commissioner and School Director. Religiously, Mrs. Carpenter is a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Jacob A. Carpenter, general farmer and stock-raiser, residing on section 30, Edgington Township, is a native of Pennsylvania having been born in Lycoming County, that State, March 17, 1842.
His father, Caleb L. Carpenter was a native of Dutchess Co., N. Y. and was a farmer. He was a descendant of one of the old families that had settled in New England in the 17th century. He came to Pennsylvania and settled in Lycoming County, where he was united in marriage with Hester M. Bastian, a native of that county. Mr. Carpenter, subject of this notice, was the eldest but one in order of birth of a family of nine children. He was but ten years old when his father's family came West and settled in Edgington Township, and at that time the settlement there was new and undeveloped.
The mother of Jacob Carpenter is yet living on the old homestead, with her younger son. Henry, and has attained the venerable age of 74 years. The father died on the homestead Oct. 24, 1866.
Jacob A. Carpenter was educated in the public school of the county, residing under the parental roof-tree until 1862. Aug. 1st, of that year, he enlisted in Co. B. 126th Ill. Vol. Inf.. Capt. Henry D. Cline (at present a resident of Rock Island). He participated in but few active engagements, the most important being that of the capture of Little Rock, Ark.; and he was honorably discharged at Springfield, this State, Aug. 1. 1865.
He at once returned to this county, and Feb. 22, 1870, was united in marriage, at Keithsburg, Mercer (page 317) Co., Ill., to Miss Letitia, daughter of James and Ellen (Ewing) \Tenable, natives of Tyrone Co., Ireland, Mrs. Carpenter was born in the last named county, Dec. 2, 1851. Her father died before her birth, and she was raised by her mother and came to America with her, when she was about six years of age, locating soon afterwards in Mercer County. In the spring of 1866 they moved to Edgington, and Mrs. Carpenter's mother died at that place, in June, 1869.
Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are the parents of four children, one of whom died in infancy. The surviving are: Paul L., born Oct. 28, 1870; Eugenia, born April 14, 1876; and Nellie C., Oct. 13, 1880.
After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter lived in Edgington village about eight years. In 1878 Mr. Carpenter purchased 80 acres of land located on section 30, Edgington Township, on which he at once located and entered vigorously and energetically upon the task of its improvement. By economy and energetic effort, combined with the active assistance of his good helpmeet, he has subsequently added to his original purchase until he is at present the proprietor of 200 acres of land, the major portion of which is under an advanced state of cultivation.
Politically, Mr. Carpenter is a believer in and sup-porter of the principles of the Republican party, and and is at present Road Commissioner and School Director. Religiously, Mrs. Carpenter is a member of the Presbyterian Church.

This was taken at 31 Cedar Place, Yonkers, NY in the home that John Franklin Sherwood built. The child is my father, Stanley A. SherwoodJr. This was taken in 1926 on the occasion of their 50th Anniversary.

The J. Franklin Sherwood construction company was founded in the1850's by John's father, John Sherwood. Several other Sherwood relatives andCarpenter family names were all part of this company. John H. Carpenter and William H. Carpenter were uncles of Mary Jane.

I also have family photos of George Carpenter's son, Wallace and hischildren: Ethel, Edna and Wallace Irving, as well as photos of MaryJane as a young woman.

I have not uploaded any family files yet. Still sorting outinformation, but plan to update a book I did for my siblings in 2003as a result of inheriting a huge box of family photos from the earlyto mid 1800's.

I feel very attached to Mary Jane although she passed away yearsbefore I was born, but she left her mark in my mind, as did JohnFranklin Sherwood.

I look forward to exchanging more information if this is of interestto you. Best wishes, Peggy

In Reply to: Re: Carpenter male DNA testing - UPDATE (Y-DNA) & CE CD 2001 UPDATE by John R. Carpenter of 8865

Could this Walter Wright Carpenter be an ancestor of my grandfather, also named Walter Wright Carpenter ???
The senior Walter Wright must be a brother to the head of houshold, as he is the same gen.
Here's what I know about the junior Walter Wright. His siblings were Minerva M, Elizabeth A, Silas Austin, W Irving, Benjamin C, and William K, all of NJ and NY.
His 1st wife is a mystery, but he had a son, Harold A.
He served in the Red Cross in WW1 and returned with nurse Helene Antoinette Lucrese Risso, who became his 2nd wife. They had 4 children, the firstborn being Pierre Risso, my father.
Endless thanks in advance for any hints you can supply.

SUBJ: Military chronology for Pierre Risso Carpenter
VERSION: 21Feb2008
FROM: P. Kevin Carpenter, 713-852-7832, kevinc@uptimedata.com

Below is a chronology of salient points in the military career of my father, Pierre Risso Carpenter (DOB: 3 Nov 1921). I have bracketed some mysteries. Many thanks in advance to all who can shed some light. Any information, records, references, hints, or even questions would be appreciated.

Father: Walter Wright Carpenter
Mother: Helene Antoinette Lucrese Risso, originally of Nice, France

3Nov1921 born in Richmond, VA.

The family moved often. 3 siblings, all younger, were born in Los Angeles and Jackson, MS. Eventually the family settled in Houston.

1930 - after abandonment by father Walter, mother Helene returned to Nice via Guadalajara and Le Havre with her 4 children.

1932 - A reference from Time Magazine of 19Sep:
"In Nice, France, Mrs. Helen Risso Carpenter, 35, U. S. citizen, tried to drug herself to death when her money gave out. She lived with her four children at Ville- franche."
This episode evidently precipitated the family's returned to Houston via Le Havre and NYC.

01Aug1941 - PRC traveled to Canada and enlisted in the RCAF. A reference summarizes his military service: "CARPENTER, F/O Pierre Risso (J96008) - Mention in Despatches - Overseas - Award effective 10 January 1947 as per London Gazette of that date and AFRO 70/47 dated 7 February 1947. American in the RCAF; born 10 November 1921; home in Houston, Texas; enlisted Windsor, 1 August 1941. Trained at No.2 ITS (graduated 20 December 1941), No.19 EFTS (graduated 14 March 1942) and No.2 SFTS (graduated 3 July 1942 as a Sergeant Pilot). To Eastern Air Command, 17 July 1942; to No.128 Squadron, 18 July 1942; promoted Flight Sergeant, 7 January 1943; posted overseas 13 January 1943; promoted Warrant Officer, 2nd Class, 3 July 1943; commissioned 3 January 1945. Missing in action, 25 November 1943 during a "Rhubarb" to Bergen-op-Zoom with No.412 Squadron (Prisoner of War). Repatriated July 1945; released 18 September 1945"

[was J96008 his service number?]

20Dec1941 - graduated No. 2 ITS at Regina, Saskatchewan, having served with M Flight (All American Flight)

14 March 1942 - graduated No.19 EFTS at Virden, Manitoba
03Jul1942 - graduated No.2 SFTS at Ottawa, Ontario

13Jan1943 - posted to England. No.412 Squadron was based at Biggin Hill, south of London

At some point in this 9-month period he conceived a boy by a local woman, probably born after he was shot down. She sent a letter and a picture to mother Helene. These artifacts do not survive. Family legend has it that the woman was from Bournemouth, on the southernmost coast.

[My half-brother would be 63-64 now. If I can find him, or his descendants, I will go to England and see their faces. This is the central mystery.]

5 September 1943 - shot down in Spitfire AB 284:
"With No. 411 (F) Squadron, RCAF, coded "DB*L". With No. 416 (F) Squadron, RCAF when it was shot down by flak during a Rhubarb near Goes-Thoeln on 5 September 1943. F/S P.R. Carpenter POW."

[What is a Rhubarb?

Had he been posted away from Biggin Hill? 411 Squadron was based at Kenley, west of Biggin Hill. Goes is in France along the Spanish border, which suggests rhubarb originated from southernmost England.]

Note the MIA and promotions are post-imprisonment.]

Family legend has it that he was imprisoned in Stalag Luft 3, and that he escaped several times.

27Jan1945 - forced march to Stalag VIIA at Moosburg, Germany

29Apr1945 - liberated by Patton's army. Most POWs were eventually transported back via the "Combat Personnel Replacement Depots on the French Channel coast".

[Family legend mentions a picture of liberated POWs, including my father, in Life Magazine. It would be interesting to find details of his repatriation processing.]

06Jun1945 - married to my mother in Houston [Note that he was not officially repatriated until July, but the speed of liberation, repatriation, and marriage must have been a jolt!]

JACOB D. CARPENTER, a prominent and able man residing in Burton Township, Genesee County, is a son of William and Lorania (PIERCE) CARPENTER, New Yorkers by birth, who came too Michigan in 1837, settling in Atlas Township, this county, where the father is still living at the age of eighty-seven. He took up Government land and having built a log house cleared and improved his one hundred and sixty acres. His (GRAND) father, George CARPENTER, who lived too be one hundred three years old, belonged to a Quaker family. He was a little boy at the time of the Revolutionary War, and loved too recount that he had the privilege of holding Gen. WASHINGTON'S horse on one occasion. He was afflicted with a trouble of the eyes which made him nearly blind when he was twenty years of age, but when he reached the age of ninety he received his second sight and his eyes greatly improved. The family is of English descent, and the mother of our subject was of Welsh descent. She lived too reach the age of eighty years and was the mother of four sons and three daughters, all but one of whom are living.
Jacob CARPENTER is the eldest of his father's family and was born in Onondaga County, N.Y., June 28, 1834. He was three years old when his parents came too Michigan. They traveled by ox-team and as the road was bad the mother walked most of the way carrying this child. It was sometimes necessary too hitch four yoke of oxen too one wagon in order too cross bad places. The Indians were friendly in those days and often came too sleep on the floor in front of the old fashioned fire-place and kept the family supplied with venison.

The log schoolhouse, and afterward a temporary board building, supplied the opportunities for education in the youth of our subject, and until he was twenty-two years of age he worked with his father, helping too improve the farm. For nearly three years he worked at blacksmithing, but in 1862 he enlisted in the Union Army, joining the First Regiment of Michigan Engineers and Mechanics, under Col. William B. INNES. This regiment as an independent one and was in three different battalions. The battles in which Mr. CARPENTER engaged were Stone River, Chattanooga, and Savannah, where he was for several days engaged in the siege of that city and Bentonville, N.C. He was in a hospital for six weeks and received his final discharge, September 22, 1865, having served for nearly three years.

After the war this young man engaged in farming in Davison Township, Genesee County, buying a farm their which he found partly improved, although only seven acres of the one hundred and sixty had seen any cultivation. In 1878 he sold this property and removed too Burton Township, where he purchased one hundred and thirty four acres and upon this he has since built an attractive brick house.

The married life of Jacob CARPENTER began in 1856, when he married Mary HOSLER, a native of Atlas Township, this county, and a daughter of George and Electa S. HOSLER, both New Yorkers, who were early pioneers in this section of the State and have now passed too the other life. Six children came too bless this home, namely: George W., Charles F., Alsie (deceased), Denton J., Elizabeth M. and Loren D. Elizabeth has taught several terms of school and is considered one of the leading teachers of this township.

The Republican party represents the political views which receive the endorsement of Mr. CARPENTER, and he is a prominent member of the Grand Army of the Republic and also the order of Odd Fellows. He has devoted himself largely for several years too breeding Holstein cattle and has always taken considerable interest in sheep. He helped too organize the creamery at Flint, and is one of the stock-holders. While a resident in Davison Township he helped too organize the Ball Cheese Factory which has been in operation for several years. He began life with almost nothing and his fine success has been the result of his own endeavors, for which he deserves and receives great credit.

COMMENT:
While the image is hard to read, it is clear that ...
Carpenter, William T is the head of house. M 63
Carpenter, Carrie is the wife F 38
Carpenter, Lillian F 16
Carpenter, Philip W. M 14
Carpenter, Hayward L. M 12 <------ looks like Hayward a male but age indicates this should be Harriet a female!
Carpenter, Whitfield F. M 10 <------ looks like Whitfield a male but this should be Phoebe or Harriet by age. Strange!

ARTICLE:
http://www.illinoisancestors.org/rockisland/williamcarpenterbio.html
William H. Carpenter, A prosperous business man can credit his success to one or all of three excellent attributes; energy, system and practical knowledge, and all three have been combined in the efforts of William H. Carpenter, a substantial resident of Rock Island, Ill., whose name is well known to the coal trade. Beginning life with no advantages except those to be gained by a common school education, he brought to bear upon his life work his natural business ability, progressive ideas and persistency of effort, and, as a result, is now the proprietor of an excellent business which assures him a comfortable competency. Mr. Carpenter is a native of Rochester, N. Y., born April 10, 1841, a son of David and Almira (Bronson) Carpenter. David Carpenter was born in New York City, October 16, 1811, and was married at Rochester, N. Y., to Almira Bronson, who was born in Auburn, that state, April 4, 1812. In 1854 the family came West to Michigan, where the remainder of Mr. Carpenter's life was spent, he being employed as a mechanic. To Mr. and Mrs. David Carpenter there were born six children: William H., Sarah J., Ruby L., Emeline A., Phoebe J., Adeline R.

William H. Carpenter was thirteen years of age when the family moved to Michigan, and there he completed the education which he had started in the common schools of New York, February 10, 1862, at Colin, St. Joseph county, Mich., Mr. Carpenter enlisted in Company A, Fifteenth Michigan Volunteer Infantry. He was in engagements at Pittsburg landing, second battle of Corinth, Miss., Haines' Bluff, Black river, Jackson. After the fall of Jackson, Miss., he was detailed to the commissary department of the Fifteenth Army Corps, serving at Black river, Memphis, Scottsborough, Huntsville, Ala., and in the entire Atlanta campaign. During the last three months of service he was in office of quartermaster of the military division of Mississippi at Nashville, Tenn. Was mustered out at Detroit, Mich., March 13, 1865, by reason of expiration of term of service. He came to Illinois in 1865, and became a commercial traveler, an occupation which he followed for upward of thirty years, then turning his attention to the coal business, being for several years engaged in that line at Moline, Ill. After disposing of his coal business, he spent two years at Los Angeles, Cal., and then returned to Galesburg, Ill., where he remained four years, and then came back to Moline, where he was for one year, and then engaged in a coal business at Rock Island. He now has offices at No. 123 Twentieth street, and commands a large trade throughout the city. Mr. Carpenter is a useful and constructive citizen, attends strictly to business and his advice and co-operation are sought in all the enterprises with which he is identified. For a number of years he was school director of South Moline township, but he has never sought public preferment. He was formerly an Odd Fellow, and is now a member of Rock Island Lodge, No. 658; A. F. & A. M., and the John Buford Post, No 243, G. A. R., of Rock Island.

Mr. Carpenter was married to Electa M. Adams, who was born in New York state, August 12, 1839, and to this union there have been born four children: William A., born January 1, 1866, and George H., born September 1, 1878, and two who died in infancy.

I am looking for information on the following families:
Robert Denison Eddy 1868-1925 married to Jannette Harvey 1870-1945 they lived in Cattaraugus Co. N.Y.
They took into their home a boy by the name of Kenneth Carpenter.....who they intended to adopt by never did. They did change his name to Ralph Dewey Eddy 1902-1980. His birth mother was Bessie Carpenter.....she gave birth to him at the age of 16 and placed him up for adoption at birth...he was born in Ithaca but spent 1902-1907 in the Randolph Children Home in Randolph, N.Y.
I know they were school teachers and had a farm in Cattaraugus Co. N.Y.

Ralph is my father.....
Thanks for any help anyone can give me

Family on page 126 & 127. At the close of the Revolution, he sold his property at Marlborough and having entire confidence in the money of the times took for his pay a sum of Continental money. Of course it proved worthless and he moved to New York City with almost nothing. He and his wife and daughters started a millinery establishment at 73 Chatham Street. This business proved very successful and it was continued until his death. The daughters retired from business in 1831. His will was proved May 11, 1826.
Wright Carpenter was a lieutenant in the New York Militia. He was a prisoner of war from 16 Feb. to 4 July 1781. Per Hist. Reg. of Rev. Officers by F. B. Heitman.

I can probably send you the PDF document if you cannot find it.
I see that there are some differences in that book and the information on the website. I was wondering if this source might be helpful to you or whether it has been proven inaccurate and I should not use it as a source/reference.

THE CARPENTER FAMILY

In an old burying-ground in Lattingtown (now written Lattintown) on the Odell farm, is a tombstone upon which is the following inscription : " In memory of Joseph Carpenter, first settler of this place and planter of this orchard. Departed this life July 11, 1766, aged 61 years, 3 mos. and 6 days." Although the stone is begrimed by age and the lettering almost obliterated, enough is shown to establish the fact that Joseph Carpenter was among the first to select Marlborough as his abode. The family 'records say that he first settled in Marlborough in 1753, and that his wife's name was Sarah. They came from Glen Cove, L. I., and settled in Lattintown, where they spent the greater portion of their lives. In 1778 Benjamin Carpenter came from England and settled near his brother in Lattintown.

Wright Carpenter was born March 2, 1749, and was the son of Joseph and Sarah Carpenter. He married Anne Smith, sister of Capt. Anning Smith, of this town, July 5, 1772, she being then only seventeen years of age. Little is known of Wright Carpenter, except that he left a good name to a large posterity.
He had thirteen children :
Luff, born May 4, 1773, died 1813 ;
Asa, born May 16, 1774;
Mobury, born April 25, 1775, died Jan. 1, 1851;
Mary, born March 27, 1777;
Leonard, born March 8, 1779 ;
Anne, born May 15, 1780 ;
Joseph, Aug. 22, 1781 ;
Sarah, born May 2, 1783;
Ruth, born Sept. 14, 1788, died Mar. 3o, 1840;
Latting, born Sept. 11, 1789, died Nov. 15, 1848 ;
Hannah, born July 31, 1792, died Aug. 4, 1834;
Julia, born Jan. 3, 1794;
Leonard, born Dec. 25, 1798.

Mobury Carpenter, the third son of Wright Carpenter, left a greater impress on Marlborough than any of the elder members of the family. He was a busy man, and erected the house at Hampton, where Alexander Young now lives.
There he lived while he was in partnership with his brother Joseph, in a store at the dock. He also sailed sloops to New York.
In 1843 he built the store now occupied by James Carpenter & Son, and kept a general country store. He was a man of genial temperament, being universally liked. Joseph Carpenter left the store at the dock after some years, and settled in Cornwall, where he died.

Latting Carpenter married Rebecca Cahill July l0, 1816, and was father to the Leonard Carpenter, who died in 1869, and was father of Frank Carpenter, now residing west of Marlborough.
He was also father of Mrs. Margaret A., wife of Gershorn Thorn, now living on Bingham street, Marlborough.
He died Nov. 14, 1848.
The record of his family bible gives his children as follows:
Hannah Jane, born April 19, 1819, died in 1853;
Charlotte Eliza, born Aug. 9, 1820;
Margaret Ann, born March 23, 1822 ; and Leonard Wright, born Oct. 22, 1826.

Leonard Wright Carpenter married Ann Matilda Fate April 5, 1849. He ran on a sloop in his younger days, after-wards went to New York City and died there.

Mobury Carpenter married Ann Merritt in 1800. His children were Leonard C., born Sept. 18. 1801, and died next year ;
Josiah W., born Sept. 17, 1802, died in 1843.
He married 1st, Maria D. Purdy, by whom he had two daughters, Mrs. Wm. Barnes, of Middle Hope, and Mrs. Chas. M. Purdy, of Marlborough ; 2d, Cecelia Caverly, by whom he left one daughter, Mrs John Oddy, of Marlborough.
Leonard S., born Oct. 28, 1804, married Eliza D. Purdy in 1832, died 1874; leaving two children, Dennis, since dead, and Mrs. Hester D. Barnes, of Middle Hope.
Alathea, born April 13, 1806, died about 1881; she married Michael Wygant in 1826, and had five children:
Mrs. Harriet Lawrence,
Mrs. Asbury Wygant,
Mary C. Wygant,
Edward J. Wygant and
Dennis M. Wygant, all living in Marl-borough at this writing.
Chas. L., born June 8, 1808, married Elizabeth Hicks in 1834, died March 15, 1869, leaving four daughters and one son, living in New York;
Ann Adilia, born Jan. 30, 1811; never married and living in New York ;
James, born Dec. 14, 1814, keeping store in Marlborough, with his son. He married Charlotte Fowler Sept. 15, 1851, and has two children,
Mary A. and
James S. Carpenter.

William Carpenter, of Milton, is not closely connected with the Carpenters of Marlborough. He traces direct descent to Ezra Carpenter, of Wales, England, born in 1550. His son Richard, born in 1593, had A son Ephraim, born June 17, 1627, in Wales. He came to America in 1678, and had a son Ephraim, who had a son Ashmead, born Aug. n, 1689.

Ashmead's second son was Benedict, born Jan. 11, 1715, and lived in Westchester.
Benedict was father to Elijah Carpenter, who had a son Haydock Carpenter, of Plattekill, and he was father to William Carpenter, who came from Plattekill to Milton 34 years ago. Here he became possessor of a fruit farm, and practiced surveying.
William married a Flagler, and his children are Caroline, who married Herbert Sabin, and settled at Amherst ;
Mary E., who married Chas. S. Pope, and settled in Manchester, Me.;
Annie M. married George L. Cary, of Gansevoort, Saratoga county ; Charles M., who married Julia Wilkelow. and lives in Lloyd ;
Enoch F., who resides with his father in Milton, and carries on fruit farming and surveying.

WARNING: The lineage given for William Carpenter of Milton uses the James Usher fake genealogy line out of Wales.

Hi John,
I'm reading through an article & wonder if you've seen this & whether you have the 18 Carpenters noted in it?
Here is one:
"The Westchester Historian Volume 66 No. 4 Fall 1990, page 91
Notices in the Hudson River Chronicle - Deaths Dec 25, 1838
Carpenter, Benjamin died in Somers Dec 17, 1838, age 62. Member of Society of Friends."
If you've seen this source I won't bother copying & sending them to you. This Benjamin has dates similar to a Benjamin Carpenter you once sent me who was born 1775 & died 1835.
To refresh your memory on those that I research...

REPLY:
Dear Jean,
The dates are too close. While it may be a chance, they appear to be the same person.

I double checked the death date in the 1901 book and it does say 17 Dec 1835. My guess is that we may have found a typo!
I will make a note regarding this.
And yes, I would be interested in seeing more. Okay to share on the Carpenter forum?

Subject: Richard W. Carpenter....
Oh, my gosh! It hasn't been NINE years!!! I was flabbergasted!!
First things first: We would be interested in the Y DNA project. Do you have details and costs? I think the DNA would help us know whether Ernest is from the Providence line [your suggestion] or the Rehoboth line [my suggestion]. It doesn't matter to him as he just wants to find kin.
Second: Ernest went online and downloaded "The Carpenter Family in America" by Daniel H. Carpenter. Our old eyes are now bugged out from reading. We did find the Richard W. Carpenter # 351, with son Benjamin on pg. 128. The book lists Benjamin #121 children of his will. Mary Ferguson #350
Richard W. #351
Samuel #352
Benjamin #353
Henry #354
Elizabeth #355
Prudence #356

My question is…. Are the children listed in birth order? If so, then Richard #351 was born before brother Benjamin # 353 who was born November 1755. I attached the birth date of our Richard W. that is in his Bible [not in our possession] which is 1786. So I am not so sure these are the same Richard W. Carpenter but coincidence. We are still searching.

Third: We found more documentation in Ohio about our Richard. A RAOGK volunteer has been helping us. She found his will, his wife's remarriage, his son Theodore's guardianship papers and Theodore & wife's grave ALL in Geauga & Lake Counties Ohio. Richard's will did not state a Benjamin as a son-so either he was deceased before 1821; there was a falling out between father and son; or they are not related. NOW here is the kicker-somewhere in our messy boxes of handwritten letters there is a faint elusive referral about a son and previous marriage of Richard. We still can't seem to find it. Our Richard married Reliance in 1811 place unknown to us. His third child Theodore was born 1815 in Plymouth MA. Theodore's sister Meribah b. 1813 died in 1899 Geauga Co. OH. So our next search is for her death cert. to document where she was born. We so have more info than 9 years ago and will send what we have been able to document at a later date. We are getting ready to take a vacation to see our son who is in the Navy and stationed in MD. We have not seen our grandbabies in almost a year. So be patient with us.

Of Carpenter roots,
Jo
[Okay, so I'm a graft!]

He was a currier and cordwainer, A Friend, and was a Loyalist during the American Revolution. He owned Lot No. 4 at Red Springs.
During the American Revolution Jacob's house was robbed by a party of "Whigs" from Westchester, led by one Carhart. They had been hospitably entertained by Jacob Carpenter, they representing themselves as "loyalists."

(Book A, p. 370).

NOTE:
The following, similar to above, but with addtional info was supplied by: Donald W. Blankman on 17 Sep 2013. dblank@comcast.net
512. Jacob10 CARPENTER (1632). Jacob Carpenter, son of John, was born at Musketa Cove about 1716. His wife was Hannah Perce (or Peirce). He was a "currier and cordwainer" by trade, but his principal occupation was that of a farmer. He had for his homestead that part of original lot No. 4 (at Red Springs) which was set off to his father and his uncle Benjamin on 6 January 1713. On this farm he lived until his death in 1781. He was a man much respected and trusted as may be seen by the mentions of him as executor, etc. His will dated 2d. 5mo. 1781, and shows wife Hannah, daughters Mary Wood, Elizabeth Bowne, and Fanny, son James, and son-in-law Jonas Wood. Daniel Kirby, Hannah Kirby, Lindy Frost were the witnesses. During the Revolutionary War the house of Jacob Carpenter was robbed by a party of "Whigs" from Westchester, led by one Carhart. They had been hospitably entertained by Carpenter, they representing themselves as "loyalists." (See Rivington's Gazette, and Onderdonk" Incidents.) Later the same month as Jacob signed his will, specifically 31 May 1781, he sent to the Westbury Meeting "a condemnation " of himself "for marrying out of the society (of Friends), for hiring men to go to war," "for keeping slaves," and says he was a birth-right "Friend," regrets his misbehavior towards the meeting, and hopes for forgiveness, etc. (Book A. p. 370.) In February of 1882 the genealogist Daniel Hoogland Carpenter visited Mrs. Ann Augusta Carpenter, the widow of William C. Carpenter, who inherited the property of his great grandfather (the above Jacob) at Red Springs. Mrs. Carpenter showed him the original will of Jacob, and also the record of births, etc., of both Jacob and his son James's family. She also furnished him with valuable information regarding the family, their property, etc. In 1760 Jacob was the surviving executor of Noah Townsend's estate. (See original papers of Daniel Carpenter.). He married Hannah PERCE (1633) circa 1644 at Red Springs, Musketa Cove, Nassau, New York, USA. He was born circa 1716 at Musketa Cove, Nassau, New York, USA. He was Currier and cordwainner circa 1750. He died in 1781 at Musketa Cove, Nassau, New York, USA.

Her brother was Edward Arnold.

Abiah Carpenter

Number 206 in the Carpenter Memorial on page 75.
Family on page 131 (#102). Abiah was not of age (21) in 1727 when his father died. Possible twin to Hannah. Number 719 on page 132 is incorrect.
Currently no factual evidence supports his being a twin.

Abiah was a Captain of a sloop (a type of sailing ship) when he wrote his will on 7 Sept 1729 on the island of St. Christophers. He died there on 17 Sept 1729. He probably died of illness. See details of his will and witnesses on page 75 and 76. AF has death date as 13 Sept. 1729.

He was co-owner of a sailing sloop in the Caribbean trade.

Subject: Re: SC Archives for Carpenters

SC (South Carolina) was involved in trade with New England and several New England Carpenters established merchant or mariner outposts in the southern port cities.
The Oliver mentioned in the SC archives was a mariner, possibly ABC #208.
The Richard was a merchant from Rhode Island who traveled throughout the southeast -- you can read more about him in my article "Richard Carpenter, Pioneer Merchant of British West Florida and the Natchez District of Spanish West Florida," in the National Genealogical Society Quarterly, Vol. 72, No. 1 (March 1984), pp. 51-62. He is ABC #621.
The Dan Carpenter in Camden SC is ABC #1525, pp. 216, 370. (His brother Timothy #1527 was an itinerant Methodist preacher who settled in Tennessee.)
Lucy (Blanding) Carpenter, widow of Phanuel Carpenter ABC #2028, also lived in Camden SC.
* The Abiah Carpenter may be ABC #719, who is unaccounted for in ABC. Margaret and husband George Carpenter lived near Abiah and were probably related, but again, not enough evidence to prove anything.
****
The later Carpenters in the piedmont counties were from PA, VA, and NC lines. Lots of interesting possibilities in the South!

See page 92 & 93.

BIRTH: Musketa Cove,Oyster Bay,Queens,LI,NY.
Marriage license dated 4 Dec. 1778. Married "by Rev Mr Oliver, chaplin of 17th Light Dragoon, Isaac Carpenter and Jane Dottenan (Woertman) both of Oyster Bay," "Married Dec. 31, 1778." St. George's Church records, Hempstead.
Jane was the daughter of John Woertman, Jr. per his will in 1789.
Nothing else further found of Issac and Jane Carpenter except that it appears he buys 225 acres of land at or near Cedar Swamp for 594 pounds from Nathan and Freelove Horton, and the deed states that Isaac's wife is Jane Woertman. Dated 31 Jan. 1789 (Jamacia Records, vol. 12, p. 134.) It is possible that the Hortons were co-heirs with Isaac and Jane and that this 225 acres was the orginal farm of John Woertman, Jr.
MARRIAGE: Probably married at least twice if he had children in 1771. Were some of his child adopted from a wife's previous marriage? Questions!

John:
Thanks for the information. There appears to be several doctors in the Carpenter tree. In a book called , A Historical Sketch Of The Town Of Scituate, R.I., published by Phenix Capron & Campbell, Steam Book and Job Printers, 1877 they cite "Dr. Cyril Carpenter, in that part of Situate now Foster, lived in the later part of the last century, and from him descended two generations in the healing art: his son Thomas and his grandson, Thomas O. Carpenter, a skillful doctor of grate promise, who died early".
Does this data apply to this line?

NOTE: WARNING:
James Usher, a lawyer for the Carpenter Family Association messed up several Carpenter lines deliberately to prevent eligibility for any potential English inheritance. It was a scam the Carpenter Family Association fell for. For example Usher changed days or months in DOBs and other odd stuff. Be Aware.
Of the Cotleb Zimmerman line per James Usher. Usher was wrong.
SEE: Genealogical and Historical Record of the Carpenter Family, by James Usher
Page 30 regarding The Carpenter Family of Long Island and NY.
Usher has Elizabeth Leeds as wife. This is likely in error. See her notes.

MARRIAGE:
Samuel may have married twice. His second marriage not listed.
In the AF may have been with Elizabeth Willson when he resided in West Jersey.
Marriage by 1760 in Sussex (now Warren) county, NJ. This per records of Katherine Stone Moore of Stanwood, WA. If this is so the last two children
(the Twins) would have been to Elizabeth Willson. Her DOB or marriage is uncertain.
BUT ...
Rhode Island Meeting Records indicate that Samuel & Elizabeth Willison had a Joseph 1745 PA and a John 17?? ? - thus the second marriage cited above seems reversed. She should be the first wife.
Elizabeth Willison b. abt 1730 of NJ is more likely b. abt 1717 and married Samuel Carpenter as his first wife.
Elizabeth Leeds at best is a second wife or listed in error.
PLEASE NOTE: Jesse Carpenter has been making an excellent effort to figure out the mess on this family. Thanks Jesse! JRC 3/2018.

10321. Harry Watt Carpenter Sr.

Descendants provided by Donald W. Blankman on 17 Sep 2013. dblank@comcast.net

--- 4th Generation ---

8. Harry Watt4 CARPENTER Sr. (1349).
BIRTH:
Harry Watt Carpenter, Sr. was the son of William Frost Carpenter and Margaret L. Watt. He was born 18 March 1894 in Brooklyn, New York. By 1900, at the age of 6, Harry was living as an inmate, along with his two brothers William R. Carpenter and Clarence E. Carpenter in The Home For Destitute Children at 217 Sterling Place, Brooklyn, Kings County, New York.
MOTHER: remarriage)
He remained there probably until his mother married Walter S. Hicks about 1903 and removed the boys from the "Home." In the 1910 census Harry was listed at age 16, attending school, and living with the family at 103 Quincy Street, in Brooklyn. The family then consisted of: Walter S. Hicks, age 56, married before, and employed as manager at the gas company; Margaret L. Hicks, age 37, married before; William R. Carpenter, age 20, employed as a stenograph typesetter for a newspaper office. Harry's brother Clarence was not listed. In the 1920 census of Brooklyn, Harry W. Carpenter, age 25 and single, was still living with Walter Hicks, his step-father, who was then 66 years old and still working as manager for the gas company; his mother Margaret Hicks, age 47; and with Walter Hicks, Jr., age 19, (born, therefore, about 1901, so perhaps he was not a half-brother to Harry? Perhaps he had been living with his mother in the 1910 census?) Harry was working as a clerk in a bank in 1920. They were living at 527 Lincoln Place, in Brooklyn. Harry's brother Clarence E. Carpenter was not living with the Hicks family in the 1910 census, ...
DRAFT: WWI
... but as of 5 June 1917 his World War I Draft Registration Card showed him as having been born in Brooklyn, and working as an office manager for the Geneva Gazette, in Geneva, New York. Clarence was married at that time and he was described as being of medium and slender build, with light blue eyes, and light brown hair. The card also stated that he had served as a private in the calvary. Perhaps the presence of Clarence in Geneva influenced Harry to leave Brooklyn for the Geneva area?
MARRIAGE:
On 8 June 1925 Harry Watt Carpenter, Sr. married Laura V. Olschewske, born 27 April 1906 in Seneca, New York. She was the daughter of Wilhelm Olschewske and Paulina Olsowsky. Harry and Laura had a son Harry Watt Carpenter , Jr. born 11 December 1927 in Geneva, New York. In the 1930 census of Geneva City, enumerated on 7 April 1930, Harry, Sr., age 36, his wife Laura, age 24, and their son Harry, Jr., age 2 years, four months were living with Laura's parents at 19 West Street. Harry was working as a printer in a Printing

Shop.
SPOUSE:
Laura's parents were from Germany and immigrated in 1888. Harry Sr. and Laura also had a daughter Nancy Carpenter who was born about 1943, and who lives in the Phoenix, Arizona area. Laura died in January of 1978 in Geneva, after ...
DEATH:
... which her husband Harry, Sr. removed to Phoenix to be near his daughter Nancy, where he died in January 1983.
BURIAL:
They are buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Waterloo, New York.
He was born on 18 Mar 1894 at New York, USA. He married Laura V. OLSCHEWSKE (1350), daughter of Wilhelm OLSCHEWSKE (1351) and Paulina OLSOWSKY (1352), on 8 Jun 1925 at Seneca, New York, USA. He died in Jan 1983 at Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona, USA, at age 88.

Note about Quaker Documents:
The Quaker Calendar Changes
Source:
https://www.swarthmore.edu/friends-historical-library/quaker-calendar
Up to and including 1751 the Julian calendar was used in England, Wales, Ireland, and the British colonies overseas. In these places the year officially began on 25 March. As an example, 24 March 1750 was folowed the next day by 25 March 1751. In 1752 the law changed: the year 1751 began on 25 March 1751 and ended on 31 December 1751, to be immediately flowed by 1 January 1752. It is important to note that in Europe and in Scotland the new calendar (the Gregorian) had already superseded the Julian calendar.
Quakers followed the English practice, with one exception. They objected to using those names of days (Sunday to Saturday) and months (January to August) which derived from pagan gods, substituting numbers. Thus Sunday was for them "First Day." Until 1752, they had no problem with the months September to December, which were derived from numbers, but for the other months they wrote out "First Month," "Second Month," and so on. They sometimes used Roman numerals (i-xii) for these, and sometimes Arabic (1-12). After 1752 all months were referred to by Quakers by their number. September became "Ninth Month" and so on.

Today some researchers find it useful to write down the old style numbers as in the original text, but add the new style names in square brackets, such as:
27 iv [June] 1731 or 29 4mo. [June] 1731.
Most computer programs require the use of modern dating. In this case researchers should use the old date, but note them as "o.s." (old style) so that the reader knows that it has not been converted.
Double Dating
January and February present some complications. The English who were aware of the difference between the two calendars often "double-dated" documents by giving both their own and the Gregorian calendar year to avoid confusion, so that 8 11 mo 1732 may appear as 8 11mo February] 1732/3. The first 24 days of March present even greater complications. Often these are double-dated, ie. 21 1mo [March] 1708/9. When they are single-dated, the writer is usually but not always anticipating the year beginning on the 25 March so 8 1mo [March] 1734 is probably 8 1mo [March] 1734/5, but may be 8 1mo [March] 1733/4.

2148. Lowell "Low" Carpenter

NOTE: Need to search graves for related Carpenters. See GRAVE below.

PRF:
Low Carpenter is found in the [8 April] 1825 NY State Census, in the Town of Fairfield, Herkimer County on page 11 (as abstracted by CNYGS), as the Head of Household. He shows having two males in the family, and five females. There was one male in the family (presumably Low) who was of military age (between 18-45 years old), and one able to vote. It also shows one female under 45 (wife, probably), and three unmarried females under 16. There had been one female birth in the family that year. Interestingly, the previous family recorded in the Census was that of Stephen Carpenter. The LDS' IGI (May 2004), indicates that Low Carpenter was born on 6 Decembre 1797 in Lillingly, Windham County, Connecticut, and that he married Nancy Barney, of Newport, Herkimer County, NY, in 1821 (no source information, other than it was submitted by a member of the Church).

Death: Mar. 19, 1907
Fly Creek
Otsego County
New York, USA
"The death of Clarence M. Carpenter at his home on the morning of March 19th removed one of the highly esteemed citizens of Flycreek. The deceased was the only son of the late Irvin and Jane Carpenter, and has spent nearly all his life in that village, having removed there from the Carpenter farm on Christian Hill in early youth. After graduating from the Cooperstown union school, me married Miss Mary Hubbell, also of Flycreek. He was a faithful member of the M. E. church, and held positions of trust both in the church and school districts for years, and was much respected. Besides his wife and three children, a son, Harold, and two daughters, a widowed mother, and an only sister, Mrs. Geo. D. Carr, will mourn his demise, and have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. Mr. Carpenter was forty-eight years of age and had been in ill health for some time, which terminated in acute Bright's disease. Funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon at the house. Interment in Flycreek cemetery.---Our Flycreek Reporter." [The Otsego Farmer (Cooperstown, NY), Fri., Mar. 22, 1907, pg. 4]

CHAPTER XLVIII.
BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.
Page 903 of 1365 pages.CITY OF WILLIAMSPORT AND BOROUGH OF SOUTH WILLIAMSPORT.
JOSEPH R. CARPENTER, of the firm of Carpenter Brothers Manufacturers of emery and corundum wheels, was born in Anthony township, Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, April 4, 1849. He is a son of Jesse B. and Phoebe (Carpenter) Carpenter of Piatt township, Lycoming county, and grandson of John Carpenter, a native of this county, and great-grandson of William Carpenter, who came from England during the Revolutionary war as a soldier in the army of Cornwallis, and subsequently settled in Lycoming county. The subject of this sketch was educated in the schools ,of Anthony township, where his father and grandfather lived, and subsequently took a course at the Montoursville Normal School. He followed agriculture until 1884, .and then engaged in the manufacture of emery wheels at Linden, under the firm name of Stone & Carpenter. At the end of two years Mr. Stone retired, and the present firm of Carpenter Brothers was organized. They moved their plant to Williamsport in 1891, and it is the only firm of the kind in this part of the State. Mr. ,Carpenter was married in 1873 to Emma E., daughter of John McLaughlin of Piatt township, and has three children: Jessie V.; Mack B., and J. Craig. He is a Democrat, and is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

COMMENT AND WARNING:
The best documentation we have of the great grandfather of Joseph R. Carpenter-124532 is the name James with one mention of William as cited above. We assume William is a typo. But when you add the question about Patriot or Loyalist it appears more likely as bad genealogy. Combining the two names William and James into one composite is wrong and causes more confusion for those unaware. OR we have two different families regarding what the Y-DNA is telling us. JRC

Second Branch
Enos Lundy, Sr., and Rachel Carpenter of Newmarket, Ontario.
Enos Lundy, Sr., son of Joseph and Susanna, married Rachel Carpenter; born 29th day of 6th mo., 1760; died in 1829 at Whitchurch, York County, Ontario; daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth Carpenter of Pennsylvania. In 1785, Enos Lundy, Sr., produced to the Exeter Monthly Meeting, Berks county, Pa., a certificate of membership from the Kingwood Monthly Meeting in Hunterdon county, N. J.; and in 1789 a certificate of membership came from the same place for his wife and children. A portion of the Exeter Meeting was set off and organized as the Millville Meeting; Enos and his family were assigned to the new Meeting. Enos served on a commitee in Friend's Society at Millville, Pa., in 1796. On 22 day of 12 mo., 1798, his daughters Elizabeth and Susanna requested to become members of the Millville Meeting; and at the same time Enos requested that his son Isaac and his daughter Ruth (minors) become members. In the spring of 1805, Enos and his family emigrated to Canada, and settled in York county, Ontario, two miles or less from the village of Newmarket, on the lot of land afterwards owned by his son Isaac; it being lot No. 26 in the second concession of the township of Whitchurch; and there Enos and Rachel lived until they were laid to rest in Friend's yard on Yonge Street.

2118. Jeremiah Lundy

He married twice and had children by each wife. He lived first in Uxbridge and then in Whitechurch, and Tecumseh and lastly to Scott Township where he died at the age of 76. He was a tall slight figure; he was in the British army during the War of 1812 and took part in several battles. He was also engaged in the Rebellion of 1837 where he lost his rifle but escaped being caught.

2122. Sarah Lundy

Sarah married Joseph Mowder and they lived and died on Lot No. 25 in the second concession of Whitechurch. They left a large family. They include Mary Bostwick and Henry Mowder of Pine Orchard, Ontario, Canada.

921. Amos Carpenter

PARENTS:
Descendant testing indicates genetic descendants are a Group 2 (Providence, RI) and not a Group 3 line (Rehoboth, MA).

Barbara Jean Carpenter Martin of Baker, FL provided information on this line, starting with this Amos in April 1998. She is pursuing the lead in an effort to provide proof. She believed that Amos was born in Rensselaer County, NY.

OBIT:
Amos Carpenter
· Birth: APR 1787 in Rensselaer Co., New York
· Death: 28 MAR 1858 in Columbus, Franklin Co., Ohio
· Burial: 31 MAR 1858 Columbus, Franklin Co., Ohio, Green Lawn Cem.
Obituary in the March 29, 1858 Ohio State Journal states: "Mr. Carpenter was born in Rensselaer county, N. Y., from whence, at an early age, he migrated to Hamden County, Massachusetts, and in the year 1805, made one of the party of resolute adventurers composing the Granville Colony, who purchased and removed to the township of Granville, Licking county, Ohio." E-MAIL: (additional) Wed, 15 Mar 2000 From: Barbara Martin
I am seeking the parents of Amos Carpenter, b., April, 1787, Rensselaer Co., New York. At "an early age" he moved to Granville, Massachusetts. At age 18, he joined the Licking Land Company that settled Granville, Ohio. He married Susannah Rose, daughter of Lemuel and Achsah Hale Rose, also of Granville, Massachusetts. The Roses were part of the pioneer party to Ohio. Amos and Susannah Carpenter had three sons: Timothy R., Truman W., Stephen Van Rensselaer, all became wealthy businessmen who helped in the building of Columbus, Ohio. Their one daughter, Louisa, married Rev. Sabin Hough. By a second marriage to Joanna Ashton, Amos was the father of Ellen, who became a school teacher. Amos Carpenter died in 1858 and is buried in Columbus, Ohio.
His parentage is my brick wall. I would appreciate any help.
Barbara Carpenter Martin
MORE:
A biographical poem written by Ellen's daughter told that Amos was the son of a Thomas Carpenter and Elizabeth Van Rensselaer. I cannot prove that. (All other events recorded in the poem, and it was an epic, seem correct).
MORE:

Hello John,
Did I ever send you my Carpenter line?
We are only 5 generations long, because I can't connect my GG-grandfather, Amos Carpenter, to a father. Since we have no sixth generation bearing the Carpenter surname, the name fades out with my generation.
There is no doubt in my mind that my Amos is from the Massachusetts Carpenters. Although he was born in Albany Co., NY, (now Rensselaer Co.), he moved at an early age to Massachusetts. When he was just 18, he left with the Granille Co., MA pioneers who settled Granville, Licking Co., Ohio in 1802.
He married Susannah Rose, daughter of Lemuel and Achsah Hale Rose of Granville, MA. They and half the town also moved to Ohio. Susannah's ancestors settled Massachusetts and were among the earliest Puritans.
Amos and Susannah were the parents of Timothy Rose, Truman, Stephen Van Rensselaer and Ellen.
A biographical poem written by Ellen's daughter told that Amos was the son of a Thomas Carpenter and Elizabeth Van Rensselaer. I cannot prove that. (All other events recorded in the poem, and it was an epic, seem correct).
Let me know if I haven't sent what I have, and if you can use orphan lines, and I will send it my gedcom.
Barbara Carpenter Martin

Subject: Re: Amos Carpenter
OK, John, you didn't bite regarding my hint in the following sentence, so I'm going to bore you anyway.
This is what I offered:
"I had told you that in light of not being able to find any connection to Kevin's line in Granville, Massachusetts, I was remaining skeptical. However, I have found a remote connection that could have a remote explanation and I am now working on it. If you are curious, I will explain it to you."

So, curious or not, here goes:
My Amos Carpenter took as his first wife, Susannah Rose, the daughter of Lemuel and Achsah Hale Rose, and the granddaughter of Justus and Deborah Barlow Rose. All of them lived in Granville, Massachusetts.
Amos with the Lemuel Rose family were part of the party that migrated to Ohio and founded Granville, Ohio in 1805. Amos even travelled in the same wagon with the Rose family. Later, he and Susannah married in Ohio in1810.
Back to the past in Massachusetts, Justus Rose (Susannah's grandfather) died in 1781. Then, in 1788, her grandmother Deborah Barlow Rose remarried Aaron Spelman. NOW, the fun begins!
Aaron's brother (among several) was Daniel Spelman. At Providence, Massachusetss in 1780, Daniel married Mary Carpenter, who is #376 in the Carpenter Cousins! Further research reveals that Mary was a descendant of the same Carpenters that our and Kevin's DNA links to. Mary's line follows: Jacob, Silas, Silas, William of Providence.
For some of their marriage, the Spelmans lived in Granville, MA where most of the family had settled. Later, they moved back to Providence but his body was returned to Granville for burial. This is the possible link between my Amos and Kevin's same Carpenters.
Briefly, Amos Carpenter was very close to the Rose family before he married Susannah. Her step-great aunt was Mary Carpenter Spelman.
My question: Could Mary have been related to the father of Amos?

Simple answer:
Amos Carpenter-34415 (who married Susannah Rose) and Mary Carpenter-145238 (who married Daniel Spelman) are 1st cousins 2 times removed. Their common ancestors are Silas Carpenter Jr.-9468 and Sarah Hannah Arnold-13658.

Notes

39. Josiah or Josias Carpenter

WARNING:
Per James Usher: Josias (b. 12 Sept.1661) and Phoebe returned to England and died there.
However, a Josiah who bought land in Oyster Bay on Jan. 9, 1685 and sold his father's Ephraim's land in 1703 had to be at least 21 years of age to buy land, indicating he had to be born Jan 1664 or earlier.
Records of Genealogist Katherine Stone Moore of Stanwood, WA stated that William of Providence was the father of Emphraim b. 1652 who was the father of Josiah b. 1681, who is said to be the father of Samuel Carpenter b. 1716 of West New Jersey.
There is sufficent evidence to confuse things. Then add that most of the records of this part of Long Island burned in the early 19th century.
CAUTION:
This is likely one of James Usher's misdirections. He was a lawyer for the Carpenter Family Association who thought there was a fortune of money to be had for the rightful Carpenter heirs. Loyalists, and those Rebels of the Civil War had many genealogies re-done causing much confusion today. Y-DNA testing and better research has made inroads in the damage done by the CFA officers. Amos Bugbee Carpenter tried to correct many of these lines in his 1898 book. ABC also provides evidence that no fortune was ever there waiting for the rightful Carpenter heirs.

142. Samuel See Notes Carpenter

This is part of an Usher line. See listed father's notes.
This is likely to be a duplicate of Samuel Carpenter-12665, son of Josias C-12658. It is a similar line but much more correct than this Usher mess. JRC

I concur. Spouse is not Benjamin Carpenter b. 1696,,RI. That Benjamin's first child was married in 1742, or born about 1720/1724 range. Too young to have a mother born about 1713. JRC 3/2001

Notes for Silas Carpenter
Note: Many genealogies are in error in stating that this Silas (1681-1751), father of Silas (1709-1801), had as a wife Christina Low. Rather, it was Silas the 3rd, his oldest son, who married Christina. Also, Daniel Hoogland Carpenter assigned Anthony Low Carpenter to the older Silas as his son, but Anthony was the son of younger Silas and Christina. Note on history of Friends in Providence:
The history of The Religious Society of Friends in Rhode Island began during the summer of 1657, when the ship Woodhouse arrived in Newport, to the considerable alarm of the local authorities. While the Quakers (originally an insulting term for Friends) were not welcomed in Rhode Island, they did not face the arrests, imprisonment, whippings, and hangings that occurred in neighboring Massachusetts. Over the next few years Friends slowly established themselves and by 1672 there were sufficient Friends in the area to warrant a visit by George Fox, a founder of Quakerism, and the establishment of New England Yearly Meeting.
By 1699 Friends Meetings were established in Newport, Narragansett, and East Greenwich, and subsidiary Meetings began to spread up the Bay.
In 1718 Providence Monthly Meeting was established as a Meeting in its own right, and soon a meeting house was erected on what is now Meeting Street* in Providence. The meeting house burned in 1758, and a new meeting house was built on North Main Street. In 1953 the Meeting moved to its current location adjacent to Moses Brown School.

Notes for Silas Carpenter
Note: Many genealogies are in error in stating that this Silas (1681-1751), father of Silas (1709-1801), had as a wife Christina Low. Rather, it was Silas the 3rd, his oldest son, who married Christina. Also, Daniel Hoogland Carpenter assigned Anthony Low Carpenter to the older Silas as his son, but Anthony was the son of younger Silas and Christina. Note on history of Friends in Providence:
The history of The Religious Society of Friends in Rhode Island began during the summer of 1657, when the ship Woodhouse arrived in Newport, to the considerable alarm of the local authorities. While the Quakers (originally an insulting term for Friends) were not welcomed in Rhode Island, they did not face the arrests, imprisonment, whippings, and hangings that occurred in neighboring Massachusetts. Over the next few years Friends slowly established themselves and by 1672 there were sufficient Friends in the area to warrant a visit by George Fox, a founder of Quakerism, and the establishment of New England Yearly Meeting.
By 1699 Friends Meetings were established in Newport, Narragansett, and East Greenwich, and subsidiary Meetings began to spread up the Bay.
In 1718 Providence Monthly Meeting was established as a Meeting in its own right, and soon a meeting house was erected on what is now Meeting Street* in Providence. The meeting house burned in 1758, and a new meeting house was built on North Main Street. In 1953 the Meeting moved to its current location adjacent to Moses Brown School.

Re: Carpenter Lineage by Winifred Lovering Holman
John (and Jack),
Mary Lovering Holman, FASG, was one of the finest genealogists of the first half of the 20th century. Volume One of THE STEVENS-MILLER ANCESTRY (short title) was compiled by her and published in 1948; "The Carpenter Line" chapter is found on pp. 261-68 of this volume. The completion of STEVENS-MILLER (i.e., Volume Two) was accomplished by Mary's daughter, Winifred Lovering Holman, and was published in 1952 (after her mother's death).
In "The Carpenter Line" chapter, Mary Holman excerpts the will of William Carpenter of Rehoboth, as transcribed by George Ernest Bowman in the MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT 12(1914):231-33; this is a far more accurate transcription than that of Amos B. Carpenter.
Without benefit of the Carpenter baptismal records from Shalbourne, England (see TAG 70[1995]:194-95), Holman nevertheless deduces accurately the proper birth order of William2's children. (She carried forward only William2's son Joseph.) She nevertheless falls victim to the same interpretation of the Weymouth records that first gave rise to the erroneous conclusion that son Abiah had a twin (nonexistent Abraham).
Carpenter researchers would be best served by obtaining a copy of the aforementioned TAG article (70:193-204), which represents the most recent and accurate scholarship on the immigrant Rehoboth Carpenter family. It cites the Holman pages a few times (not in support of data) but goes well beyond them as to analysis and data (both new and corrected).
Those whose Carpenter descent is through William2's son Joseph (bap. Shalbourne, 6 April 1634; m. Rehoboth 25 November [not May] 1655, Margaret Sutton) will benefit directly from the Holman pages (beginning at 1:265 and continuing through "The Sutton Line," 1:269-70)--and from Howard Dakin French, "Sutton Family," NEHGR 91(1937):61-65; they should obtain copies of both.
John, I'll soon be in touch with you directly.

176. Capt. John Carpenter "See notes"

NOTE: Gene Zubrinsky comments regarding the parent/child relationship:
"Capt. John Carpenter, 'late of Smithfield,' R.I., died at Providence on 15 April 1806, in his 69th year, son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Rhodes) Carpenter of Providence, Cranston, and Smithfield (Arnold, _Vital Record of Rhode Island_ [RIVR] 13:250; NEHGR 114:282–84). He is PROBABLY the same man who married (1) at Cranston on 20 Nov. 1763, Ruth Inman, and (2) at Smithfield on 13 February 1796, Mary (_____) Angell (widow of Daniel) (RIVR 2:2[Cranston]:9, 3:6[Smithfield]:24). Benjamin2 Carpenter (William1) of Pawtuxet (Providence), R.I., is thought to have had a son Joseph (Carpenter [1901] 326-27, 328), and it is POSSIBLE BUT NOT CONFIRMED that he was this John's father. ONLY IF THIS IS SO can it be said with certainty that the wife of Benjamin2 Carpenter's son Joseph3 was Elizabeth Rhodes (Zachariah3, Jeremiah2, Zachariah1)." Because this John's being the son of Joseph3 is not confirmed, I would put NOTHING in John's record fields other than his name. It would actually be appropriate (though I know you're concerned with searchability) to list him with "(perhaps)" in front of his name.

Gene Zubrinsky added:
NOTE: Child listed as John Carpenter who married Ruth Inman has been removed as he is a duplicate to another John Carpenter whose father is Joseph Carpenter. The John Carpenter who married Ruth Inman was b. abt 1738 Pawtuxet, Providence, RI d. 15 Apr 1806 Smithfield,, RI and m. 20 Nov 1763 in Cranston,, RI. He was the son of Joseph Carpenter b. abt 1690 Pawtuxet,, RI, of Benjamin Carpenter b. abt 1653 Pawtucket,, RI, of William Carpenter b. abt 1610. That John Carpenter resided in Smithfield, RI in 1755." (Joseph Carpenter's father-in-law, Zachariah Rhodes, made his will in 1755. It names grandson John Carpenter but does not indicate that he was then of Smithfield [see NEHGR 114:283])."
That John Carpenter was married twice. First to Ruth Inman in 1763 by Joseph Randall. Second to either Mercy Angell, widow of Daniel Angell on March 12, 1796 (she married 3rd Seth Hunt after being widowed by John Carpenter) OR Mary Angell widow of Daniel Angell on Feb. 13, 1796. John and Mary or Mercy has one son.

John,

The following link is to a 1960 Register article presenting evidence that John Carpenter of Smithfield was indeed the son of Joseph Carpenter and his first wife, Elizabeth Rhodes, daughter of Zachariah3 Rhodes (Jeremiah2, Zachariah1): Click here: NEHGS - New England Historical and Genealogical Register.

http://www.newenglandancestors.org/database_search/nehgsr.asp?vol=114&pg=282&page=1&cnt=0&anchor=#image

We won't know until Bette gets back to me, but this may turn out to be a better source to cite (NEHGR 114[1960]:282-84) than the Epistle (which perhaps also cites it). In any case, you'll want to clarify your notes for this John Carpenter.
It's beginning to look as though Joseph's son John was the man of that name who married Ruth Inman at Cranston in 1763--Joseph was living there in 1762--but direct evidence is yet to be found. While it also may be that Joseph Carpenter of Providence, Cranston, and Smithfield was the son of Benjamin2 (William1 of Providence), I still haven't seen any evidence confirming it.

The two Carpenters of Smithfield listed in the 1777 Rhode Island Military Census are John (16-50) and Joseph (60+). If the latter was Benjamin2's son, and assuming the birth year of about 1690 that D. H. Carpenter has for him is close, Joseph was already in his late 80s in 1777. But if he was born a bit later, perhaps he was also the Joseph Carpenter whose Providence estate administration (case no. A1828) is dated in 1785 (Index to Providence, Rhode Island, Probate 1646-1899 [NEHGS online database]). If you don't have a copy, you might want to order the appropriate FHL film to see what the record contains.

Subject: Silas,son of William of Proividence, His connection with the Friends (Quakers)
Here's another tidbit I dug up while looking for info on Thomas Carpenter. We have seen the record of when this Silas Carpenter requested permission of his RI Friends about 1745 to go to North Carolina. I had wondered if he ever returned, and this answers that question:
Silas Carpenter (son of Silas, son of William of Providence), grandfather of Thomas:
Extracted from minute book, Core Sound MM, Hege Library, Guilford College, Greensboro NC July 14, 2005.1750, 1st mo 6thMonthly meeting met before which Benjamin Small and Meriam Albertson, Henry Stanton, Junior, and Hope Borden laid their intentions of taking each other in marriage. Also a certificate from Cape Fear was read which manifested Friends unity and satisfaction with the visit of our esteemed Friend Silas Carpenter.He also requests one from us in order to remove to New England in order to a regular preceedings. the meeting appoints Nicholas Bryand and wife, William Hill and his wife to inquire into the conversations and clearness of all other incumberances of marriage of the two couples above named and also into the conversation of our Friend Carpinter and clearness in respect of marriage. No further business the meeting adjourns to meet in course.
On the same date, Silas Carpenter: Witness to marriage of Benjamin Small and Miriam Alberton

The following had already been entered into Donald Kozlowski's Carpenter Family Tree RootsWeb/WorldConnect database:
9/18/1745 Silas present before the Council (Providence) and resign as guardian of nephew, William, son of William, deceased, as he is about to leave the country. (He deeds again in 1747). Greene's History of E. Greenwich, R.I. states that among the able ministers of the Friends Society was Silas Carpenter. They occasionally traveled to other parts of the county to preach. When Silas Carpenter was about to move to North Carolina in 1745, the Meeting appointed two Friends to inquire into his circumstances and conversation and how he had left provision for his ancient mother. After three months the report was favorable. He was "clear from any entanglement in marriage." 5/5/1745 Silas of Providence, yeoman, dedds to John DDexter 232 Acres north side of Pawtuxet River.

NOTE:
Daniel Hoogland Carpenter's Carpenter Family in America (pp. 323/324 inaccurately assigned Christiana Low to Silas the 2nd (b. 1681 and d. 1751) as his wife. She was actually the wife of his son Silas (b. 1709 and d. 1801). Of course, Thomas was their son. Also, cousin Daniel assigned Anthony Low Carpenter to Silas the 2nd but he was the son of Silas the 3rd and Christiana. Many of the online genealogies have copied this error.

Notes for Silas Carpenter
Note: Daniel Hoogland Carpenter's history of the Carpenter Family was in error in stating that Silas (1681-1751), father of this Silas (1709-1801), had as a wife Christina Low. Rather, it was this Silas, his oldest son, who married Christina. Also, he assigned Anthony Low Carpenter to the older Silas as his son, but Anthony was the son of Silas and Christina. It stands to reason that this is his correct burial place, because his sons and daughter were living there as well and listed in the 1800 census. It is now listed as "lost".

However, the following location has also been reported, but might be in error. (Note it was just from a memory of a Mr. Pepino.) U.S., Find A Grave Index, 1600so-Current give his birth as 1707 and death as 3 May 1801, with death at East Providence, Providence Co., RI and burial at Silas Carpenter Lot, East Providence, Providence RI. My guess is that they are the same burial.

I have seen conflicting data that indicates that a Betsey Dexter born either 1754 or 1768 marrried a Thomas Carpenter in 1801and that he died JUN1812 and then she married a Joseph Arnold on 30DEC1813. Thomas is listed as being born either 1733 or 1750. In the cemetery transcripts I have found the following:WK007, Arnold Lot, Columbia Ave., Warwick, RIARNOLD BETSEY (DEXTER) 1768c - 24 DEC 1818 WK007CARPENTER BETSEY 1791c - 14 NOV 1810 WK007CARPENTER THOMAS 1750c - 6 JUN 1819 WK007There's also some other Arnold's buried there but Joseph is not one of them!So in conclusion it looks like this Thomas & Betsey may have had a daughter Betsey born c1791.Gloria Pawtuxet Village is unique in that its northern section is in the town of Cranston, while its southern section is in another town, Warwick.

1733: Thomas Carpenter was born to Silas and Christina Low Carpenter.

(Rhode Island Roots, V. # missing, pp. 18-19, searchable at American Ancestors)

1768: Thomas's future wife, Elizabeth (Betsey) Dexter's birthyear of 1768 is confirmed in the Dexter Genealogy, where she was listed as the 4th child of Jonathan and Alice Lowe Dexter.

1780: Thomas's first cousin, Mary Carpenter, married Capt. Daniel Spelman, a ship captain. They settled in Providence and he and his sons eventually had a line of packets from Providence to Albany, New York. At that time grain and produce from New York were brought to southern New England by way of the Hudson River. Daniel's parents and siblings lived in Granville, Massachusetts where Thomas Carpenter's son Amos, my great-great grandfather grew up. (He was born in Albany/RensselaerCo., New York). The Spelmans of Massachusetts were extremely close with the Rose family, whose daughter my Amos married. I believe it is possible that Thomas Carpenter may have been a part of all this).

This would have been a first wife, because Betsey Dexter, the 2nd wife, would have been just 14 in this record. These 2 sons would have been born after 1766.
Rhode Island Census of 1782 NEHGS Register, Vol. 128, p. 54

1785-1790: During this period, Thomas and Betsy Dexter married. Thet were 1st cousins,1R, through their Low sides. Betsy's mother, Alice Dexter, was a Low, as was Thomas's mother, Christina. Christina was Alice's aunt.

1790 census, Cranston, Providence Co., RI: Thomas Carpenter 1 male over 16, 3 males under 16, 2 females. All the 3 males would have been born after 1775. Listed on same page as many of his mother Christina's Rhoads cousins.

1787: His son, Amos (my gg-grandfather) was born in Albany/Rensselear Co., New York. At an early age, he moved (or was moved) to Granville, Massachusetts where Daniel Spellman's family lived and he grew up there. Could he have perhaps been placed as a child in one of the Spelman families, at the request of Daniel and Mary Carpenter Spelman?

Apparently, Thomas and family moved to Barrington by 1793. (His mother's ancestors, the Lows, first settled in this town).

Anthony Carpintor: 1 male -10, 1 male 26-45, 1 female -10, 1 female 26-45 (His brother Anthony's son.)
Also in Barrington at this time: John Low, probably Thomas's uncle, and Mary Horn (Thomas's sister). It definitely appeaars that close members of Thomas's family were living here at the time. His father , Silas, father of Thomas and Mary, and grandfather of Anthony, had moved to Barrington also.

1801: His father, Silas, formerly of Cranston, died at Barrington, RI on Thomas and family returned to Cranston by 1810.

(His first cousin, Joseph Carpenter, was listed in the same census in Cranston as well. He named a son Amos, b. near the same time as my gg-gf, son of Thomas, was born. The name was repeated in others of that generation of cousins.)

Providence in 1770 had a flourishing maritime trade, a merchant aristocracy, a few industries, a body of skilled artisans, a newspaper, a stagecoach line, and several public buildings. Fortunes of many of the merchants and ship owners had been built on the shipping of tea and sugar and molasses, rum, and slaves, as well as whaling. Tea, sugar, molasses and rum were examples of items which the English tried to tax and the Providence merchants preferred to import without paying the tax. During the later part of the eighteenth century, Pawtuxet became one of the very active and significant ports in Narragansett Bay. The mouth of the Pawtuxet River was a strategic location to settle, and gave boats a safe harbor and the village considerable importance in the triangular trade of the day, and shipyards for the coastal and West Indies trade were located here. Slaves were introduced at this time. Ironically, the colony later prospered under the slave trade, by distilling rum to sell in Africa as part of a profitable triangular trade in slaves and sugar between Africa, America and the /Caribbean.

John, I have seen photos of that grave. They are all very difficult to read. Either there are 2 Thomas Carpenters in the Arnold lot, or two different people interpreted what they said in different ways. I, and others, have interpreted the marker to say 1733 - 1812 or 1813. Thomas (SR) had to die before his wife, Betsy, remarried at the end of 1813. Barbara C. Martin.

Subject: Re: Amos Carpenter
Hello, John,
It's been awhile since we've tackled my elusive Carpenters. I hope you are doing well.
Still no concrete proof, but I do have some new insights on my Amos's ancestry. I feel good about this, and do believe it to be my line. The following is just the bare bones of what I have been seeing. I'm not even including any documentation but will do so later. I just wanted you to see what's going on in my southern woman brain!
Simply, and with not too much amplification nor any of my documentation:
Family records reported that Amos Carpenter's father was Thomas Carpenter.
Amos was probably illegitimate. He was born in Rensselaer Co, New York in 1787, which is near the city of Albany, but at an early age moved to Granville, Hampden/Hampshire Co., MA. There were no Carpenters listed in the 1790 or 1800 census for Granville. What family did he live with?
He joined the Rose party in 1805 that migrated to Ohio and established the city of Granville.

In 1810, he married Susanna Rose, daughter of Lemuel Rose.
FTDNA confirmed that my brothers DNA suggested our Carpenter lineage might be the same as that of Kevin Carpenter, even to the one mutation from the original immigrant, William Carpenter.
We studied the results and discovered our first common ancester with Kevin was Silas Carpenter of Cranston, Rhode Island, b. In 1681 and d. In 1751. I researched all of his grandchildren for a possible Thomas, as the family records had shown. (His children's names were well known already). I did indeed find a Thomas Carpenter, son of Silas's son Silas, who might be our ancestor. But what connection did he have with Granville, MA?
In that same search, I, of course, found Kevin's ancestor, Joseph. That confirmed for me that I was looking at the right family. Joseph of the DNA, and Thomas of confirmed genealogies, were first cousins!
Also, among the first cousins, I found a Mary Carpenter who had married a Daniel Spelman who was - drum rolls - from Granville, MA! They married in 1780 and settled in Providence, RI. The next year, he completed his Rev. War service and became a ship captain and spent almost the rest of his life in Providence and on the sea. He was called Capt. Daniel Spelman. Two sons became ship captains, as well as two sons-in-law. They were all called Captain as well.
Providence in 1770 had a flourishing maritime trade. Fortunes of many of the merchants and ship owners had been built on the shipping of tea and sugar and molasses, rum, and slaves, as well as whaling. The following was written about Joseph, the son of Daniel and Mary Carpenter Spelman: Brought up in a town where the principal interests were connected with the sea, and surrounded by its influences from childhood, he naturally became a seafaring man and master of vessels. He and his son, Oliver, had a line of packets from Providence to Albany. At that time grain and produce from New York were brought to Southern New England by way of the Hudson River, which had not yet been crossed by a railroad.
Bingo!! I had wondered how Thomas Carpenter could have been in New York and fathered a baby. In one of the records I found for Thomas, he carried the title of Captain. I had at first though it to be a military rank, but could not find Rev. War records for him. He obviously was a ship captain, like all his cousin Mary's Spelman family! And, yes, they made regular trips to Albany, New York, by way of the Hudson River. (Amazingly, my gg-gf Amos secured a 3 year passage aboard a whaling ship for my great-grandfather, Stephen, when Stephen came of age!)
Granville records and history revealed that the Spelman and Rose families were extremely close. (My Amos married Susanna Rose). The 1800 E. Granville, MA census shows Aaron Spelman living three houses from his brother, Stephen. Stephen married Deborah Rose, cousin of Susannah. Aaron's first wife was Elizabeth, sister of Susannah's grandfather, Justus Rose. Aaron's 2nd wife was the widow of Justus, Deborah. Justus and Deborah Rose were Susanna's grandparents. Two households before Aaron was his brother, Timothy. Twenty years later, Timothy's son Thomas would be a neighbor to Amos and Susanna in St. Albans, Ohio!
Just before Daniel Spelman died, he left Rhode Island and returned to Granville, MA and died in the home of his nephew, Stephen (perhaps son of the above Stephen).
One caveat:
Some believe that Thomas, son of Silas, was too old to have fathered a son in 1787. They do believe that he may have had a son named Thomas, who fathered my Amos. That may be the case, but I can't find records for two Thomases in Cranston/Pawtuxet. Until I find differently, I am holding on to there being just one Thomas, but open ot another who could have been his son.
Therefore, I conclude that:
Amos's granddaughter recorded that his name was Thomas.
History connects with history: That my Amos Carpenter married into the Rose family is in our records. That same Rose family was very close to Daniel Spelman's family, which is a part of established history.
Daniel Spelman would have been acquainted with his wife Mary Carpenter's Providence family.
Capt.Thomas Carpenter, Mary's first cousin, may have worked with the Spelmans in the shipping industry and had passage to New York where Amos was conceived.
Science, through the FTDNA program, confirms that we probably match with Kevin and consequently, his ancestors, who these are.
Thomas Carpenter, son of Silas (or a son named Thomas) is my Amos's father.

385. Joseph Carpenter

This descendant line provided by Jack Schoedinger in Jan 2009.

Joseph, according to his pension application, was born in Cranston, Rhode Island on April 2, 1756 and enlisted at East Greenwich, Rhode Island for military service during the period of March 1, 1776 to the winter of 1779. His service of 16 months was performed in Capt. Spencer's and Capt. Sullivan's expeditions.
He was first mentioned in land records in 1789 in South Scituate, Rhode Island when he bought one-third of the farm of his father-in-law, William Knight, and in 1798 he purchased the remaining land which was willed to William Knight's grandsons William, Job and Christopher, the sons of Christopher Sr. The Federal Census of 1790 gives Joseph's residence as South Scituate with two males over 16, two under 16 and three females. Like so many other families all his sons, with the exception of Charles, left the farm and migrated into the new lands of northeast Pennsylvania. Joseph and Esther remained on the Carpenter Road Farm, where many of their family were buried, until their death. They had eleven children.

NOTE: Was a Benjamin (b. abt. 1775) a missing child of this family? Mon, 9
Oct 2000 From: Jack A Schoedinger I have , for some time, been looking for the ancestors of one Benjamin Carpenter b. Abt. 1775 in Coventry, Rhode Island. I recently found that after his wife, Freelove Baily, gave birth to their first child, they relocated (Abt. 1801) to Clinton Twp, Wyoming County, Pennsylvania (around Factoryville). Eventually, the family spread into Lackawanna County and , pretty much remained there. In reviewing information about this area I found there was a "Carpenter Town", with a "Carpenter Cemetery" in Lackawanna County, PA east of Dalton. The cemetery is located near the intersection of rt. 524 and 347 near highway 81.
Can any body help me with information about the town and/or who is buried in the cemetery.
Jack Schoedinger Vacaville California.

MORE: Jack A Schoedinger
Well, I am still working on Benjamin, but with a little luck I did find him in an 1810 Tunkhannock Township, Pennsylvaina census. I feel this is the Benjamin I have been searching for because his first son Peleg, who married in 1821, showed up in a 1830 census of this Township. I also checked some maps of the area and found a place called Carpenters Hollow about 2 miles Southwest of Factoryville. This area is now in Clinton Twp.
but may have been in Tunkhannock in the early 1800's.
During this little venture I also found a little town named "Carpenter Town" and a small "Carpenter Cemetery" Northeast of the city of Dalton.
The town site is now in the Lackawanna State Park, so I sent an e-mail to them asking if they had any information about it. An Angela Lambert, Environmental Education Specialist, answered my reply and is interested in the background of the town. She noted that the only reference she had found was an article written in "The Scrantonian" Sun, May 31,1981 titled "Lackawanna State Park is Hub of Summer Activity by William P. Lewis, executive director of the Lackawanna Historical Society. It mentioned that a Rev. Rolla Carpenter, a country preacher, opened a small general store in Carpenter Town about 1860.
As for the cemetery, she stopped there on her way to work and wrote down some headstone data for me that had the Carpenter name on them. This is what she sent me:
"First stone I saw had a main stone that said Carpenter with two smaller stones off to the sides, the names on these were: J.W. Wheaton 1851-1917 they don2 CONT These were all the stones I copied down, there are still others but many were difficult to read due to weathering. While I was their a young man stopped by to say that he and some of his friends took the initiative to clean up the cemetery this past year, they cleared out a lot of the overgrowth, his name was Mike Stabinski and his friends were Jim Wilk and Kyle Christian. Mr. Christian and Mr. Wilk live directly behind the cemetery in a housing development and Mr. Stabinski said he believed that land that the housing is on may have been owned by the Carpenter family orginally. Mr. Stabinski also said the Boyarsky from the Cemetery mow the front grass every year. "

I have not yet tied these names to individuals in my files, so I thought you may have better luck. I believe the Carpenters listed above are related and lived in or near Carpenter Town. I would appreciate it, if you could check and see if you can identify what branch of the Carpenter family tree they came from.
Have a good day,
Jack Schoedinger.

936. Henry Carpenter

Henry and his wife migrated to Pennsylvania after 1810. He purchased land from Westcott Stone that was deeded in 1814 and described as "on the small waters of the Tunkhannock creek, 78 acres, 20 perches" and was near that of his brother Amos. Henry remained there for about a year and on the arrival of Joseph he elected to return to Rhode Island and deeded his land over to Joseph. He and his family lived in various places. Henry is listed in the 1830 United States Census in South Scituate and deeded with his wife in Cranston Rhode Island in 1831 and 1833. Henry and his wife than showed up in Foster Rhode Island where in 1856 one Olney Paine deeded to Henry Carpenter of Sterling, Connecticut 200 acres on Turnpike Road. On February 18, 1861 Thomas and Chloe Fuller of Foster deeded to Amey Carpenter, yeoman, of Foster, 80 acres in Foster. This deed was witnessed by Henry and George S. Tillingh. Henry's will was made about 1858 when his wife Achsah died and was probated on his death in 1862 with everything to Amey Hopkins. Henry is buried on Old Plainfield Pike in Foster with two children of Varnum and Amey (Fuller) and one unmarked grave. Based on these transactions it is obvious that Henry had a second wife Amey.

"John, you have been helping me with my illusive Carpenters - sending me files, etc. There are four of we distant cousins (met on the NET) who have been working on this. Well, Wes just returned from a trip and found a book in the RI Genealogical Library at 121 Hope Street in Providence. He found a book entitled "Descendants of William Carpenter of Providence". It is actually a typed paper by Ruth Adair and Mary Carpenter (sisters) in 1975." (Published Quincy, MA 1975) Penny.
The data submitted on this John's descendants fit nicely with the known data. Penny, - Wes and the two others not named have done a good job. JRC 7/20/99.

E-MAIL: Tue, 27 Jun 2000 From: "Marcia Buffett"
To: "John R. Carpenter"
CC: "Ken Warkentine"
Dear John and Ken:
Do either of you have anything on a Joseph C. Carpenter of Northville? He had a daughter Libbie who was married on March 31, 1880 to Harmon Fisher a barber in Northville.
Thanks, Marcia
NOTE: This Joseph had a sister named Rebecca whose first husband died in Northville. Was the Joseph C. above a descendant of this Joseph?

NOTE:
If the age tick mark is off by one column upward (I.E. 30 to 39) then this would fit this Joseph b. Dec 1790. Next door is Daniel Carpenter with age 40 to 49 or b. abt 1791 to 1800. If the same thing happened (tick mark off by one cat plus) then he would be age 50 to 59 or b. abt 1781 to 1789 which mismatches the father reported b. of Feb 1764.
The Daniel mentioned could also be a brother or other relative. But, Joseph reportedly had no brother Daniel ...
Farther down the page is Elijah Carpenter with the age column of 60 to 69 or b. abt 1871 to 1880.
Sadly, I do not have a Carpenter family matching the information above. SEE NEXT!

930. Amos Carpenter

Amos and his wife were married in 1804 and later migrated to Luzerne County, Pennsylvania in what is now Scott Township. The 1810 United States Census of Abington Township, Luzerne County, lists Amos as head of Household with 3 Males under age 10, 1 Male between 19 and 45 years and one Female.

In 1810 Amos and Cynthia moved to North Abington, Pennsylvania, settling in an area that would later come to be known as Carpentertown.

They were members of the Abington Baptist Church. No trace has been found of Amos's acquisition of property in Abington where the brothers originally settled, but in 1821 Amos and Cynthia Carpenter deeded land in that vicinity to Nathan Bailey. At that time they probably removed to Abington Center (the present Waverly), where they lived until they moved to Loomis Lake.

Amos sold his land in Abington on December 14, 1821 to Nathan Bailey, brother of George Anson Bailey founder of Bailey Hollow (now Dalton). The deed was recorded with the Luzerne County Recorder on November 3, 1823 in Book 22, page 509. The delay in recording was most probably caused by the death of Nathen's father in June of 1821 and Nathan had to settle the estate in Rhode Island before bringing his mother to Pennsylvania.

In 1827 Amos was a member of the Six Principle Baptist Church in Abington Center.

He and his family later moved to Abington Center in Lenox Township where they were living in Household Number 1306 of Susquehanna County during the 1850 United States Census. This area was to become the town of Waverly around 1856. Many of Amos's family lived in a close proximity to him, as did in-laws such as the Bailey and Westcot families. His son's Hiram and Amous lived in households 1337 and Household 1344, respectively. About 1850 they moved to a farm near Loomis Lake in Lenox Township near Hopbottom, now the town of Foster in Susquehanna County, and died there. Amos and Cynthia were members of the Abington Baptist Church.

933. Wheaton Carpenter

According to family tradition, Wheaton left Rhode Island with his brothers, Amos and Joseph in 1815. However, the 1810 Federal Census record places his brother Amos in Abington Township, Pennsylvania. It is believed that Amos went to Abington Township first before 1810, was followed by his brother Henry and later in 1815 Joseph and Wheaton traveled to the area with Otis Colvin.
Weaton did not settle in Abington as all traces of him were lost by the researcher until his descendants were located in Genesee County, New York. When his father died he was willed his fathers "Wearing Apparel".

Wheaton Carpenter was born in Scatuate, R. I., in 1788. At mature age he went to Scranton, Pa., then a wilderness and resided a few years, and married there Nancy Dickerson. In 1808 he, in company with Elisha Miller, came to Byron on foot, with knapsacks on their backs, in which they carried their provisions for the long and tiresome journey. Mr. Carpenter located a farm of 100 acres about one-half mile southwest of Byron Center. He then returned to Scranton, and two years later came with his wife and two infant daughters to the wilderness of Byron. In the meantime his claim was forfeited, and he procured another of 100 acres, 80 rods west of a log tavern Pept by Ben Hall, on Black Creek, where he resided until the ensuing spring (1811), when a freshet swept away his pig, fowls, and all movable property, and left only his cow and horse. Thus warned off he never returned, and never again owned real estate in Byron. He participated in the War of 1812, and went with the militia to Buffalo when they were called out He was a miller and resided in "Sodom," a location in Byron, and in thecold season of 1816 found his increased family destitute. On a Monday morning he wended his way to where A. W. Graves's flouring-mill is now located, and where was one of the most primitive grist-mills, con structed of logs and without an iron cog wheel in it; in fact nothing but wooden trundle-heads to drive the stones, which were made of a rock from an adjacent field. He turned the bolt with one hand and fed it with the other. This mill was built by one Williams and was the first in town. He engaged to run this complicated machine for half the toll, and at once went to work, remaining until Saturday, when he returned to his family with meal, who all this time knew nothing of his whereabouts. He found his wife roasting a few beans for her children's supper, the last edible morsel in the house. On Monday he removed his family to the vicinity of the mill, and fortunately placed them beyond want the remainder of their lives. He continued a miller for 40 years, in different parts of Genesee County, and died in Byron, at the house of his daughter, Mrs. Nancy Gaines, in the fall of 1876, aged 88 years. His. son, M. D. L. Carpenter, born in 1827, resides one fourth of a mile from North Byron.

NOTE: Per Jack S.
Joseph and his family traveled with the Otis Colvin family " with a single span of horses" from Rhode Island to Abington Township in 1815. On arrival Joseph took title to the land that Henry Carpenter obtained on Tunkhannock Creek from Westcott Stone in what is now know as Scott Township. The Carpenter Family Cemetery is located on their land, adjacent to the present Intersection of State Routes 524 and 347 in Lackawanna County, Pennsylvania.

The Carpenter Cemetery contains mostly members of the Carpenter family that descended from William Carpenter of Providence Rhode Island. There is an early record of this cemetery made by Fred Sherwood, when he did a survey of cemeteries in Northeast Pennsylvania. In this record (as published by the Stone family), he wrote "Mostly Carpenter surname on gravestones. I will call this the Carpenter Cemetery. There are Simrell, Newton, Emerson, Ellis, Vail , Fellows and other gravestones here. There are several black families buried here including the Fogg and Allen Families." He only recorded the following individuals;

1. Henson Allen died 20 Apr 1852 aged 45y 28d.
2. Pardon Allen from New London, Settled Here 1811, husband ; Betsey A. Allen died Apr 27, 1848 77y 1m 10d, wife; Henson Allen died 20 Apr 1852 aged 45y 28d. (Picture 20)

Mrs Lambert noted that these were all the stones she copied down and that there are still others, but many were difficult to read due to weathering. She also stated that "While I was their a young man stopped by to say that he and some of his friends took the initiative to clean up the cemetery this past year, they cleared out a lot of the overgrowth, his name was Mike Stabinski and his friends were Jim Wilk and Kyle Christian. Mr. Christian and Mr. Wilk live directly behind the cemetery in a housing development and Mr. Stabinski said he believed that land that the housing is on may have been owned by the Carpenter family originally.

The Carpenter Cemetery contains mostly members of the Carpenter family that descended from William Carpenter of Providence Rhode Island. It is believed that the Carpenters owned much of this land in Scott Township and possibly acreage in Abington Township also. The William Carpenter buried in Knight Cemetery are 3ed cousin of Joseph Carpenter (Number 8 in this list). Jack A Schoedinger.

Lydia Carpenter Rogers
Birth: 1806
Granville
Washington County
New York, USA
Death: 1890
Coos County
Oregon, USA
Lydia Carpenter was born on March 31, 1806, Granville, Washington Co., NY, to Amos Carpenter, (b. 1762), and Amos' second wife, Deborah Dillingham, (b. 1775, Easton, New York), married June 27, 1805.

Lydia's half siblings:
* Stephan, (b. 11-27-1810, Granville, Washington, NY).
* Cynthia, (b. 8-22-1811, Granville, Washington, NY).
* Amy, (b, 12-4-1814, Granville, Washington, NY).

Lydia was married to Joseph Rogers, (b. March 21, 1801, Danby, Rutland County, Vermont), married 17 Jan 1827 (or 1826), in Granville, Washington. Joseph 's parents were Aaron Rogers, (b. 1776- d. 1866), and Dinah Folger Rogers (b. 1-5-1782 Easton, NY- d. 16 January 1860 at Worcester, Massachusetts). Aaron and Dinah were married on 22 March 1798. The couple settled on a farm in Danby, later owned by an AA Mathewson.

Lydia and Joseph's children:
* Amos Carpenter Rogers (1828 - 1920) was married to Mary E. Noble Rogers (1842 - 1903). Amos and Mary lived the later part of their lives in Berkeley, CA.
* Anson Rogers, (b. 1829).
* Cyntha Rogers, (b. 1833).
* Stephen Rogers, (b. 1835).
* Lydia Ann Rogers, (b. 1837).
* George Rogers, (b. 1839).
* Joseph Rogers, (b. 1842).
* Marion Adelia Rogers, (b. 1846,-d. 1920), married to Jasper Anson Yoakam, (b. 1848,- d. 1924).

In the 1850 Census Joseph and Lydia were listed as living in Danby, Rutland, Vermont with their family:
Joseph Rogers, M 48y
Lydia Rogers, F 43y
Amos C Rogers, M 22y
Anson Rogers, M 21y
Cyntha Rogers, F 17y
Stephen Rogers, M 15y
Lydia Rogers F, 13y
George Rogers M, 11y
Joseph Rogers M, 8y
Marion Rogers F, 4y

Joseph and Lydia's family migrated west to Oregon in several movements between 1850 and 1880. At almost 50 years old, Joseph had been kicked in the head by a horse and was severely handicapped both mentally and physically, (sometimes described as "insane" during this period). After the accident, he was unable to work. He remained first on his own farm in Danby with his younger children, including his young daughter, Marion. When his wife journeyed to California seeking a means of support for the family, Joseph moved-in with his son, Stephen Carpenter Rogers, in Glenn Falls, NY. Later he moved again, to Granville, NY.

The first of Lydia and Joseph's children to move west was their eldest son, Amos C. Rogers. "In 1849 Amos C. 'caught the gold fever' and joined a group in Boston, Massachusetts who called themselves the Bunker Hill Mining and Trading Association. For $300 each, Amos C. and eight other young men from a nearby town, including his cousin Amos E. Rogers, joined the association numbering 120 men. The association bought the ship Regidas, (Regulus), and left Boston on March 5, 1849. They sailed around Cape Horn and landed in San Francisco on September 29, 1849. In the spring of 1850 Amos C. headed for the gold country and panned for gold on the American, Feather, and Yuba Rivers.

In 1851 Amos C. sent for his mother, Lydia, (Carpenter) Rogers . At age forty-six she came to booming San Francisco by herself and went to work for a banker and his wife. No record has been found to indicate how Lydia came to San Francisco but it must have been by ship. Lydia sent money home to help support her husband, Joseph Rogers , and their younger children. By 1860 Joseph was sufficiently recovered to move to the Coos Bay area where he rejoined his wife, Lydia. When Joseph and Lydia were reunited in Coos County, they moved to Anson Rogers' farm where they lived until they died."

Above quote from: Using the text of e-book Craddock, Kinder, Rogers, and Sheldon families by Sheldon Forbes Craddock active link like: read the ebook Craddock, Kinder, Rogers, and Sheldon families, is obligatory.

When Lydia arrived in San Francisco in 1851 she sent a letter to her son, Amos C. Rogers, in the gold country and he returned to the city where he established a house raising and moving business. In 1854 the second son, Anson Rogers, came to San Francisco and joined his brother, Amos C. 8 , in the business. The records show that Anson came west by ship having walked across the Isthmus of Panama. The railroad across the isthmus was not completed until 1855.

In 1855 Amos Carpenter Rogers met his cousin, Amos Emerson Rogers, in San Francisco again. Amos Emerson had gone to Coos County, Oregon where he met and married a girl from Empire.

Upon hearing of the opportunities in the Coos Bay area Lydia and her two sons, Anson and Amos C , decided that Amos C. should go there to explore the possibilities. Amos C. arrived in Empire by ship on June 15, 1855 with a large supply of merchandise. He promptly opened a store (trading post) and then expanded into a saloon and ten pin(bowling) alley. He also purchased a farm at the fork of the Coos River. Shortly thereafter his mother, Lydia, and his brother, Anson, moved from San Francisco to the farm. About 1 869 Amos C. sold his store and saloon in Empire and moved to the farm. In 1876 he sold the farm and he and his wife, Elizabeth, (Noble), moved to Berkeley, California. She died in 1903 and he died in 1920.

In 1858 Anson had purchased a 320-acre farm on the south fork of the Coos River. In 1869 he returned to Granville, New York where he married Elizabeth Dillingham. Anson was in the stock raising and dairy businesses and the farm had taken on a semblance of prosperity and comfort. Ultimately, he made it into one of the finest farms in Coos County. Anson became a prominent citizen and the bridge across the Coos River was named for him. Anson and his wife had four children, Dillingham , Elizabeth , Alice and Anson Otis Rogers.

There are many families with the surname Rogers in the Coos Bay area but Otis Dillingham Rogers, son of Anson Otis Rogers and grandson of Anson Rogers, is the only descendant of Joseph Rogers with the surname Rogers now living there.

Of the whole Joseph Rogers family, those who came west were Joseph and his wife, Lydia, (Carpenter), Rogers , and five of their eight children: Amos C., Anson, Stephen Carpenter, Maria Dinah, and Marion. No record has been found to indicate that the other three children, Cynthia, Lydia, and Joseph, came west. In the 1880 census Joseph's family was listed as living in Coos River, OR. They were:
Joseph Rodgers, M 74,
Lydia Rodgers F 74.
Anson R. Rodgers, M 51,
Lydia E. Rodgers, F 35,
Elizabeth Rodgers F 7,
Alice Rodgers, F 4,
Anson O. Rodgers, M 3M,

Their household also included four non-related persons. Joseph's birth date seems to be incorrect on the census.
Lydia died 1890
Joseph died in 1891.

Lydia and Joseph's children:

Joseph Rogers, M 48y
Lydia Rogers, F 43y
Amos C Rogers, M 22y
Anson Rogers, M 21y
Cyntha Rogers, F 17y
Stephen Rogers, M 15y
Lydia Rogers F, 13y
George Rogers M, 11y
Joseph Rogers M, 8y
Marion Rogers F, 4y

Joseph and Lydia's family migrated west to Oregon in several movements between 1850 and 1880. At almost 50 years old, Joseph had been kicked in the head by a horse and was severely handicapped both mentally and physically, (sometimes described as "insane" during this period). After the accident, he was unable to work. He remained first on his own farm in Danby with his younger children, including his young daughter, Marion. When his wife journeyed to California seeking a means of support for the family, Joseph moved-in with his son, Stephen Carpenter Rogers, in Glenn Falls, NY. Later he moved again, to Granville, NY.

The first of Lydia and Joseph's children to move west was their eldest son, Amos C. Rogers. "In 1849 Amos C. 'caught the gold fever' and joined a group in Boston, Massachusetts who called themselves the Bunker Hill Mining and Trading Association. For $300 each, Amos C. and eight other young men from a nearby town, including his cousin Amos E. Rogers, joined the association numbering 120 men. The association bought the ship Regidas, (Regulus), and left Boston on March 5, 1849. They sailed around Cape Horn and landed in San Francisco on September 29, 1849. In the spring of 1850 Amos C. headed for the gold country and panned for gold on the American, Feather, and Yuba Rivers.

In 1851 Amos C. sent for his mother, Lydia, (Carpenter) Rogers . At age forty-six she came to booming San Francisco by herself and went to work for a banker and his wife. No record has been found to indicate how Lydia came to San Francisco but it must have been by ship. Lydia sent money home to help support her husband, Joseph Rogers , and their younger children. By 1860 Joseph was sufficiently recovered to move to the Coos Bay area where he rejoined his wife, Lydia. When Joseph and Lydia were reunited in Coos County, they moved to Anson Rogers' farm where they lived until they died."

When Lydia arrived in San Francisco in 1851 she sent a letter to her son, Amos C. Rogers, in the gold country and he returned to the city where he established a house raising and moving business. In 1854 the second son, Anson Rogers, came to San Francisco and joined his brother, Amos C. 8 , in the business. The records show that Anson came west by ship having walked across the Isthmus of Panama. The railroad across the isthmus was not completed until 1855.

In 1855 Amos C. 8 Rogers met his cousin, Amos E. Rogers, in San Francisco again. Amos E. had gone to Coos County, Oregon where he met and married a girl from Empire.
Upon hearing of the opportunities in the Coos Bay area Lydia and her two sons, Anson and Amos C , decided that Amos C. should go there to explore the possibilities. Amos C. arrived in Empire by ship on June 15, 1855 with a large supply of merchandise. He promptly opened a store (trading post) and then expanded into a saloon and ten pin(bowling) alley. He also purchased a farm at the fork of the Coos River. Shortly thereafter his mother, Lydia, and his brother, Anson, moved from San Francisco to the farm. About 1 869 Amos C. sold his store and saloon in Empire and moved to the farm. In 1876 he sold the farm and he and his wife, Elizabeth, moved to Berkeley, California. She died in 1903 and he died in 1920.

In 1858 Anson 8 had purchased a 320-acre farm on the south fork of the Coos River. In 1869 he returned to Granville, New York where he married Elizabeth Dillingham. Anson was in the stock raising and dairy businesses and the farm had taken on a semblance of prosperity and comfort. Ultimately, he made it into one of the finest farms in Coos County. Anson became a prominent citizen and the bridge across the Coos River was named for him.

Anson and his wife had four children, Dillingham , Elizabeth , Alice and Anson Otis Rogers.

There are many families with the surname Rogers in the Coos Bay area but Otis Dillingham Rogers, son of Anson Otis Rogers and grandson of Anson Rogers, is the only descendant of Joseph Rogers with the surname Rogers now living there.

Of the whole Joseph Rogers family, those who came west were Joseph and his wife, Lydia, (Carpenter), Rogers , and five of their eight children: Amos C., Anson, Stephen Carpenter, Maria Dinah, and Marion. No record has been found to indicate that the other three children, Cynthia, Lydia, and Joseph, came west. In the 1880 census Joseph's family was listed as living in Coos River, OR. They were:
Joseph Rodgers, M 74,
Lydia Rodgers F 74.
Anson R. Rodgers, M 51,
Lydia E. Rodgers, F 35,
Elizabeth Rodgers F 7,
Alice Rodgers, F 4,
Anson O. Rodgers, M 3M,
Their household also included four non-related persons. Joseph's birth date seems to be incorrect on the census.
Lydia died 1890
Joseph died in 1891.
Both are buried at Coos River Cemetery.

2155. Stephen van Rensselaer Carpenter

An Universalist.

NOTES: Barbara C. Martin
My g-gf, Stephen Van Rensselaer, was the father of 2 sons and 7 daughters. Del, the older son married late and had no children. Van Rensselaer, my gf, had 2 sons. John died in WWII having never seen in one and only child - a daughter. My father, Stephen VR, had 2 sons, my brothers, neither of which had sons. So - the Amos Carpenter line fades out with my brothers. (For the fun of it, of the 7 daughters SVR had, only 2 married. Their parents taught them they didn't have to marry, but trained them in vocations instead. Women's lib lived in the 1890s!)
OK, I did say I had something else on Timothy's son, Amos L. I had forgotten that I had found a slight possibility of a connection. The last census and for that matter, the last record I found for him was the 1880 census. Here, from my database notes:
1880 census: Keokuk, Lee, Iowa, HH#190
Amos Carpenter, age 30, Oil business, b. Ohio

Nellie, wife, age 24, keeping house, b. Ohio, both parents Scotland
Flora, 1, daughter, b. Illinois
Flora Frazer, age 50, mother, b. Scotland
Bridget Lacy, age 22, servant, b. Iowa, both parents Ireland
After that, no more Amos L. Carpenter b. in 1820. In 1900, I found his ex-wife, divorced and professing to having had only one child, and she and the daughter living with his wife's mother. Where was Amos?
1900 census: South Township, Chicgo, Cook, Illinois, p. 112, HH#3226
Flora Fraser, head, May 1829, age 71, wd., mother of 4, 1 living, b. in Scotland as were both parents, immigrated 1850
Nellie F. Carpenter, daughter, Mar 1856, 44, div. 1 child, b. Ohio, both parents Scotland
Flora M. Carpenter, G. daughter, Sept 1878, 21, b. Illinois, both parents Ohio
Here's where it gets tricky. I found the following Amos F. in 1900 and 1910. This person sports an F. middle initial, and is 10 years younger than our son of Timothy, but note his occupation and compare it to above. Also note he has male children. However, he says he has been married just 2 times, and this wife says she has had no babies. Nellie. divorced first wife, reported she had had only 1 child. So., this Amos would have had to marry 3 times. So that's 3 strikes against him being Timothy's Amos - the name, the age, the no. of marriages. For those reasons, I've not traced him further. Should I perhaps look more into this?
1900 census: Ames twp., Athens Co., Ohio, HH#152
Amos F. Carpenter, b. Feb. 1860, age 40, b. Ohio as were both parents, Contrator of oil wells, could r&w, renting house, newly married
Lillian R., wife, b. Octo 1859, age 40, had not had any children, b. Ohio as werre both parents, could r&W
Bertha, daughter, May 1887, age 13, b. Ohio as were both parents, at school
Lena, daughter, Dec 1892, age 7, ditto
Thomas E., Feb 1890, age 10, ditto
Charles, Nov 1895, age 4, ditto
(These children were not born to Lillian, so this Amos had been previously married. Our Amos's first wife was Nellie, and she is listed in 1900 in Chicago, divorced, living with her mother. If this is our Amos, he has married for the third time).
1910 census: Wesley twp., Washington Co., Ohio, HH# 96
Amos F. Carpenter, age 50, m. 2, presently 11 years, b. Ohio as were both parents, farmer, mortgage farm
Lilliam R., 50, m1, never gave birth
Edward T. age 19, teacher-common schools
Lenna, age 18, home
Chares, 16, farm laborer

2194. Daniel Pettibone Carpenter

UPDATE:
Daniel Petibone Carpenter is not listed in the will of his claimed Carpenter father as previously noted. See PROBATE: for Joseph Carpenter-19962. JRC Mar 2019.
He may be the son of Mary Potter and a marriage to an unknown Pettibone about 1823/1825? NEED DOCUMENTATION!
Please remember that Mary Potter did not marry Joseph Carpenter until 1832. Her young children were likely raised and assumed Carpenters by marriage of their mother.

E-MAIL: Wed, 10 May 2000 From: "Bill Newsom"
HI John,
I've fixed the standardizes part of the tree, I hope it saves you a few minutes. I wish I could provide more. I'm in E-mail contact with two other branches of Daniels family. ONe in Moorhead, MN and one in Bremerton, WA. I'm still gatering information on Daniel and Sophie. I wish I had a few stories about them. all I can tell you is they came to Minn with a lot of others. The promise was farm for land. I'm looking for more on this. It seems that in the mid 1800. Minnesota attracked familys with the promise. If they work the land for X amount of time there owned the land. Daniel and his family left NY for Wisc in 1853\54, then settled in Geneva, Freeborn Co., MN in 1859/60, some wear between 1860 and 1880 they traveled and settled in Stony Lawrence, Grant Co., MN and then on two Fergus Falls, Ottertail Co., MN. This is were I've found most of the family. They were farmers.
My information is from Census, Newspapers (OBITS), Cemetery records and Birth and Death Certificates.
I hope this helps, I can possible provide more as I get deeper into the resource. thanks for you help and again let me know if this is not what you are looking for. Bill.

Western Presbyterian Church, Orwell Twp, Fergus Falls, MN.

Hi John, I'm the Moorhead resident. Did not always live here, for some 30 years I lived in Pelican Rapids. I decided to retire in Moorhead, have a son living here and also have public transportation here. I grew up in Fergus Falls. To bad Mom did not know of a Carpenter family member in this area as she would have enjoyed a visit. The Carpenter family did not do well at keeping in touch it seems. I'm searching for some of my cousins and it's a problem. I do know some of my cousins are still in California and most likely there would be some information in Fresno. Think my uncle Morris died in Fresno and may be buried thereabouts.
Read a news article about an awful happening to a John Carpenter family. Would this be any part of your family? I'm hoping not but for anyone it would be horrible, horrible. I have prayed for the family regardless who they belong to. Let me know if this was your family.
My address is 100 N 3rd.St. #410 Moorhead,Minnesota 56560. e-mail julane_c@yahoo.com

2202. George Washington "Washer" Carpenter

George Washington, also known as "Washer" lived in Lenox Twp. household 1305 of Susquehanna County during the 1850 United States Census.

Note: E-mail from Frances Sawyer noted that her Great Grandmother Eleanor (Nellie) Carpenter started a diary in May 1879 when they left Muscoda, WI, to come to NE. In the diary she mentions stopping to see Uncle Wash Carpenter, in Franklin County, NE, and she mentions Aunt Emeline fixing such a grand supper. Frances stated that Nellie married Tommie Northey, 1880. They had a son Clyde, 1881, and Nellie died in 1883 of TB at the age of 21. This would make Eleanor (Carpenter) Northey born in 1862.

Sept 2002 From: Jack A Schoedinger To: Beverly Valcovic Sent: Thursday, May 10, 2001 2:15 PM Subject: Re: Carpenter family Hi Beverly, When I received your e-mail I checked my Carpenter records, in addition to those of John R. Carpenter's Rehoboth Line and John L. Carpenter' Providence Line without much luck. I did happen to recall some information I found while working with a Frances Sawyer (fs81215@alltell.net). She and I found that we both had a lot of common names in our lines and felt that between us, we could find her lost "Jeremiah B. Carpenter" and my lost "Benjaman Carpenter". We were able to find her tie to a Amos and Cynthia (Franklin) Carpenter whose son Amos was the father of her Jeremiah. I believe this family is also in your lineage. Amos and Cynthia had a son listed as " Washington Carpenter", born abt. 1814 in Abington, Luzerne (now Lackawanna) County. This son was found in the 1847 list of taxables and also in the 1850 census in Lenox Township listed as "Washer" Carpenter age 36 and married to Emeline age 25, with children Henry m. age 6; Erastus m, age 4: and Elvira f, age 2. They lived next door to Amos age 67 and Cynthia age 66. On the other side of Amos was the Merritt Carpenter family and several other Carpenters family members. I also found in the Centennial History of Susquehanna County (found at http:www.dsdata. com.au/genealogy/nepa) that one Henry Millard kept a house of entertainment in Lenox Twp that was a well known stopping-place, from the fact that the stag e horses were changed there. I would be interested in seeing your Carpenter in formation since it may provide a lead to my still unfound Benjaman Carpenter. I also suggest that you contact Frances, on this side of your family. I do believe you two are in fact cousins. I also have a listing of other children and grand children of Amos and Cynthia if you would like them. Jack A. Schoedinger J.Schoedinger@juno.com

Emaline Malinda "Ama" Millard

NAME: Last name possibly Millard.

According to the 1850 United States Census there were five Millard families living in adjacent homes (household numbers 1352 thru1356) in Lenox Township. In addition the Centennial History of Susquehanna County states that one Henry Millard kept a house of entertainment in Lenox that was a well known stopping-place, from the facts that the stage horses were changed there. It is believed that these Mallards were of Emaline's family.

Pauline Almira Bailey

1. Obit for Pauline Almira Bailey--Pauline A Bailey was born Jan 22, 1837, in Lancaster Co, PA. Died July 21, 1917, after an illness of five weeks. She had been a constant member of the M E church since her fourteenth year and during her last illness found great comfort in the word of God, repeating from memory hymns and Psalms, as she lay, apparently oblivious to those about her.

In 1854 she was married to J B Carpenter at Hanford, PA. Of this union were born three girls, two of whom, Mrs Emma Bray, of Hot Springs, SD, and Annie Wall Barnett of Patterson, CA, are yet living.

She moved from PA to WI in 1856, and her husband died at Muscoda, WI, in 1863.

She was married in 1864, to H Peckham and to them was born two sons, both of whom are yet living, Fred H Peckham at Brady, NE, and C N Peckham at Ceres, CA. Their family moved to NE, in 1880 and from there to OR in 1889 and from OR to CA in 1900. Her husband died at Ceres, CA in 1906. One daughter Mrs T C Northey, died in 1883. She leaves four children and nine grandchildren to mourn her loss.

For the past six years she has lived with her beloved niece, Mrs Martha Miller, at Turlock, where she was tenderly cared for during her last illness by her daughter, Annie Wall Barnett and Mrs Miller.

The funeral services were held at the M E church at Turlock Monday afternoon, July 23. Rev Leedom, who was the pastor of the deceased twenty years ago in NE, officiating. The text for the sermon was "She hath done what she could." at the close of which Rev Leedom read a poem written by her daughter Annie Wall Barnett--"Mother Is At Rest." Six women, members of the Bible class in Sunday school to which she belonged, acted as pall bearers. The interment was in the family lot in the Ceres Cemetery.

2. From Remembrances of Early Days in NE--by C F Peckham. Printed in a series of three articles in the Gothenburg Times, beginning July 21, 1928.

"About 1890, Uncle Halsey and Aunt Paulina were coming from Gothenburg in a wagon when their horses ran away near our home. They were thrown out and so badly hurt that they never got over the effects of their accident. Aunt Paulina was a cripple for 20 years."

7610. Emma Eugenie Carpenter

From the diary written by Eleanor Isabell Carpenter in 1879 when the family left Muscoda, WI to come to NE. entry for July 15, 1879---Left Franklin Co after visiting Uncle Lewis Wilson and Uncle Wash and Aunt Em Carpenter. Left Emma with them. (I am not sure which family Emma stayed with. She went to school there and married LeRoy Bray there)

---------- ----------

In 1953 Emma and LeRoy Bray were living in Hot Springs, SD. They had two girls.

7611. Annie Mario Carpenter

Poem written by Annie Wall Barnett for her mother's funeral.

MOTHER IS AT REST JULY 21, 1917

She suffered patiently as best
Becomes a child of grace.
She knew in whom she trusted and
No fears could long have place.
Her weary feet had journeyed far
O'er paths up hill and rough.
Pain walked with her until Love said,
"Come home, it is enough."

No love or tender care could stay
The Grim Destroyer's breath.
Though love did all that love could do
To ease the pains of death.
She paid unto the uttermost
Pain's last devouring toll
Ere the Angel of Deliverance came
To liberate her soul.

She ceased to suffer and the lines,
Of age slipped from her face,
And on her brow left holy calm
And some of youth's lost grace.
The peace of tasks all ended and Delights which earth denied--
Joys of reunion with her own--
Heart hunger satisfied!

Oh, who would call her back to pain,
Or shed a selfish tear,
When she has found all that her heart
With sadness yearned for here.
When she has folded her worn hands

In peace of heavenly rest
And found the ultimate of joy
And all that love holds best.

Dear mother, rest in peace. I know
Beyond all earthly pain
Where Love's immortal lillies blow
We'll clasp your hands again.
A few more years of tears and pain
For us who linger here.
Then glad reunion in a land
Where Love dries every tear.

Thomas Clenom Northey

1. Married to Eleanor Carpenter, Sept 16, 1879, in Pawnee City, NE. Consent given by Halsey Peckham. Marriage by J H Ph-sson (unreadable) Pastor of the ME church.
2. From the Gothenburg Times, March 12, 1953, Gothenburg, NE

T C NORTHEY, EARLY DAY SETTLER OF SOUTH SIDE, DIES IN CA
*Came west with Peckhams and settled before there was any such town as Gothenburg.

Tomie Clenom Northey was born in Lancaster, WI, April 12, 1859, and died at Mariposa, CA, Feb 23, 1953, nearing the age of 94 years. His birth place was the old United States Hotel, which his parents, William and Martha Simpkins Northey, kept in Lancaster. Prior to the Civil War his father conducted a hotel at Platteville, WI, and U S Grant, who was a hide and horse buyer working in that part of the country before he became General, made his headquarters at the Northey hotels and became very friendly with the proprietor.

In 1863, Tomie's parents moved to Woodman, where his father was in the employ of the old Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad one year. They then went to Boscobel where his father worked for the Milwaukee & Prairie de Chien Railroad as telegraph operator and express agent five years. While in Boscobel, when Tomie was nine years old, he lost his mother by death.

In 1869, his father married Cornelia Simpkins, moved to Blue River where he was station agent and telegraph operator until 1879. It was but natural that Tomie, one of his brothers and two sisters all were later employed as telegraphers.

It was at Blue River that Tomie received his education, and many were the pleasant memories he enjoyed of his schoolmates, whom he would mention by name, and of the happy hours of fishing, swimming and skating along the Blue and the WI rivers, and of other sports and activities which were a part of the community life of those early days.

When he was about 18 years old, he moved with his parents to a farm near Muscoda, where they engaged in farming, stock raising and stone quarrying.

In 1879, at the age of 20, he trekked westward with a caravan from Crawford Co, WI, which consisted of four wagons drawn by horses, and other wagons hitched to four yokes of oxen, the wagons being followed by 150 head of cattle belonging to "Uncle Josh" Peckham. With Uncle Josh and his wife, Aunt Ann, were their four sons: Fremont, Herman, Elmer and Oscar, and the young man Tomie. The other part of the train included Uncle Josh's brother, Halsey Peckham and his wife, Paulina, their two sons, Fred and Charley, a daughter of Paulina's by a former marriage, Nellie Carpenter, and Ada Colvin.

On July 1, 1879, after about two and a half months on the road, they crossed the Missouri River from Iowa into Nebraska at Nebraska City; and it is interesting to note that by an unusual coincidence on July 1, 1946, just 67 years later to the very day, Tomie again crossed the Missouri River at the very same place while he was on a trip back to visit his old haunts in WI.

At Pawnee City, NE, Tomie stopped temporarily to work for one of Aunt Ann's brothers, Jim Atkinson, while the others proceeded westward to find a location for their future home. The place chosen was on the south side of the Platte River in eastern Lincoln Co, NE, some miles from where Gothenburg now stands, and about 40 miles east of Buffalo Bill's old ranch at North Platte. After attending to the business of filing their claims with the government land office at North Platte, the party returned to Pawnee City, and from there Uncle Josh and his boys proceeded on to Carroll Co, IA, to bring on the cattle which had been left there with Ed Atkinson, one of Aunt Ann's brothers, until a permanent location was established.

On Sept 16, 1879, Nellie Carpenter and Tomie were married in Pawnee City, and that fall they left with Halsey Peckham and his family for Franklin Co, NE, where some of Nellie's relatives lived about 35 miles south of Kearney. In Dec, Halsey and Tomie went out to the homesteads in Lincoln Co, where they arrived New Year's Eve. There they dug a hole in the ground, roofed it over with poles and brush and that held the land until they could bring out their families when spring came.

Three years later, in 1883, death took Nellie, leaving Tomie with a son, Clyde E Northey, who is now deceased.

From Jan 1 to April 1, 1884, Tomie carried mail through blizzards from a place called Cottonwood Springs to North Platte, a round trip of 44 miles, in what was known as a "Democrat" buggy. That fall he started work as a rider on the JB Ranch, which consisted of 15 sections of land that was owned by J B Curtis, a manufacturer of chewing gum of Portland, ME.

About this time, Tomie met a niece of Aunt Ann's who had come west from WI, with her family and homesteaded in the vicinity. Lillian Evelyn Atkinson consented to share the pioneer life with him, and on March 14, 1886, they started a journey together which lasted well beyond their Golden Wedding Day, when death severed their companionship in 1941. To them were born four daughters and two sons, one of whom died in infancy.

Soon after their marriage, the bride's father, William Atkinson, arranged for a series of meetings to be held in a sod school house in the neighborhood by a minister of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church. As a result of attending these the young couple accepted the message of the soon-coming Saviour, and they now rest in the hope, waiting to be called forth to again resume the companionship which has been temporarily suspended.

Mr Northey was one of 17 of the first registered voters in Farnam Precinct. To pass the lonely hours following the loss of his wife, he spent considerable time writing, for his own amusement, his memoirs of those early days in NE. In them he tells of the hard years, sometimes three in a row, when prairie fires, grasshoppers, drought or hail destroyed the grass and crops; of how the settlers picked up buffalo bones from the prairie and sold them in Plum Creek (now Lexington) to get a little money; of the neighbors whom he nursed during sickness, and those he prepared for burial after death, sometimes even conducting the services when no minister was available. He tells of the pleasant times also, when crops were good and the hills produced abundantly the wild fruit which the settlers so badly needed. He shared the joys and the sorrows of a generation now gone.

During his last moments of life he was heard humming a song, and when asked about it, he said: "Yes, I am getting in tune with the angels." and thus passed a pioneer.

The children who survive him are: Mrs Vyeva Alcox, Miss Fay Northey, Mrs Margie Pinkston and Neil W Northey, all of Mariposa CA, and Mrs Lila Morgan of Los Angeles. The deceased also leaves four brothers: Wilbur of Spokane, WA, Willis of Minneapolis, MN, Will of Billings, MT, and Otto of Oceana, CA., and one sister, Mrs Janie Baker of Seattle, WA. There are eight grandchildren: Clyde and Earl Northey of North Platte, NE, Fred Northey of Loveland, CO, Mrs Eldora Brown of Gothenburg, NE, Mrs Aleen Moore of Great Falls, MT. Ethel and Elma Pinkston of Mariposa, CA, and Volney Clenom Morgan, M D, of Santa Barbara, CA.

He also leaves 10 great grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted in Mariposa, CA, by Elders Geo E West and John Baerg. The pallbears were: Wm A Morgan, son-in-law; David and Roy Tickner, nephews; Neil W Northey, son; Everet Atkinson, nephew; and Roy Knight. Interment was in the Mariposa cemetery.
